Frequently Asked Questions from Faculty of Social & Behavioural Sciences students

Where can I sit to have my lunch? Where can I eat my lunch with family & friends?

- In the Law & Commerce Courtyard there are tables and chairs set up outside of the Coffee Cart, which you are welcome to use.
- A 2 – 7 minute walk and you will find plenty of undercover spaces to have your lunch in the excellent OneByte Café in the library and eating spaces in Flinders Laneway, between Humanities Courtyard and Matthew Flinders Theatre.

Where can I find a microwave to use? Where can I find hot water? Where can I prepare my lunch?

- All Faculty of Social & Behavioural Sciences students have access to the Kitchenette in the Law/Commerce Building (35). It has a microwave, sink, hot water and a sandwich press. It is open Monday to Friday between 7.45am and 6.30pm during Semester.
- A 2 – 7 minute walk you will find plenty of places to eat your meals, purchase food and drinks and meet up with friends and family. The Flinders Laneway is a bustling hive of activity with food vans and funky spaces to meet people and study over a coffee. You can also visit Oasis, for tea and coffee and a place for heating your food and quiet reflection.

Where can I get milk for my coffee or tea?
As there is hot water at the Law/Commerce Kitchenette and the Refectory at the Union Building you may wish to bring coffee or tea bags to make a cuppa. You can purchase milk at the Coffee Cart in the Law/Commerce Courtyard.

Where can I get free tea or coffee?
All students have access to Oasis, which is located at Building 30 in the Function Centre. There is free tea and coffee making facilities there.
