Training pathways for General Practitioners/Rural Generalists in the Northern Territory - ACRRM

Flinders University
Northern Territory

Becoming a Rural Generalist
ACRRM pathways

Aust/NZ Medical Graduate or Overseas Graduate with Australian Medical Council Certificate
Full General Registration
Completed PGY1 (min)

Mandatory hospital rotations do not have to be completed before application and entry into the AGPT Program. They should be completed prior to the second year of the Program.

Resident positions In the NT

International Specialists
With AMC verified qualifications

Rural Experienced entry to Fellowship

FRACGP

Previous experience Australia or overseas

Specialist Assessment Pathway

ACRRM Independent Pathway
Mandatory RPL

Area of Need Position

Assessed as Not Comparable

Refer to Australian Medical Board for options

Assessed as substantially, or partially comparable

Secure employment, obtain registration, complete College requirements pg. 15 +

(AGPT) -Apply to RACGP or ACRRM (AGPT will assess eligibility)
New applicants
Rural Generalist FAQS
To Enrol in the Rural Generalist pathway lodge an EOI for Rural Generalist training at application see page 18 of the Guide
Information seminars on the Program

Australian College of Rural and Remote Medicine ACRRM
AGPT Pathway 4 years
Rural Generalist
Applications Training requirements,
Training handbook
Core clinical 1 year
Primary Rural and Remote Training 2 years
Advanced Specialised Training 12 months in one discipline e.g. Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander health, Adult Medicine, Mental Health, Obstetrics & Gynaecology, Paediatrics, Academic Practice,
On line modules, emergency courses

Northern Territory General Practice Education NTGPE
Regional Training Provider (NT)
How to apply for GP training
GP training handbook RPL pg 6
NTGPE training requirements
Placements Find a placement
Scholarships and Awards

Fellowship
FACRRM

Remote Vocational Training Scheme
RVTS
3 years distance education & remote supervision leading to FACRRM handbook
Aust wide intake quotas i.e. 22 Remote Stream or 10 AMS stream
Eligibility targeted recruitment

Indigenous GP Registrar Network IGPRN
Peer support network offering academic, assessment, collegiate, social and cultural support

Continuing Professional Development

AGPT Australian General Practice Training
FACRRM - Fellow Australian College of Rural and Remote Medicine
FRACGP—Fellow Royal Australian College of GP's
AMC—Australian Medical Council
PGY - Post Graduate year
RPL -Recognition of Prior Learning.