Flinders UNIVERSITY
Northern Territory

Training Pathways for Medical Administration in the Northern Territory

Overseas Trained Specialists
With AMC verified qualifications

Assessed as Substantially or Partially comparable

Assessed as Not Comparable

Secure employment, obtain registration, complete College requirements

Fellowship
FRACMA

Continuing professional development

Aust/NZ Medical Graduate or Overseas Graduate with Australian Medical Council Certificate
Full General or Specialist Registration

- Minimum of three years full time clinical experience involving direct patient care
- Medical Administration position (trainee or substantive)

Royal Australasian College of Medical Administrators
RACMA Fellowship training pathway
3 years plus completion of training portfolio
Recognition of prior learning
Domain overview
Program includes:

- University Masters Degree
- Learning portfolio with major items including re-search project
- Annual learning plan
- Reflective practice and supervisor and preceptor semester assessments of core competencies
- Medical Leadership workshop
- Webinars, Indigenous Health online modules
- Communications workshop
- Prefellowship workshop

ACCHS Aboriginal Community Controlled Health Services
CAAC Central Australian Aboriginal Congress
Preceptorship A supportive period of transition from learning to applying a complex skill

Teaching Hospitals in the NT
Resident positions
Registrar positions and training

Leadership for Clinicians program
Management for Clinicians

Obtain a Medical Administration position in the NT.

All site/s to be accredited by RACMA
Sites in the NT that have or can potentially apply for accreditation include:

- Training Hospitals in the NT
- Darwin Private Hospital
- Palmerston Regional Hospital
- ACCHS e.g. CAAC, Katherine West Health Board
- Private Practice
- Diagnostic Services

See the accreditation page and FAQs for more information