The Library and first year students

Students often leave your lectures and tutorials and make beeline to..
The library is a popular destination for students.
we provide many resources they require to be successful at their studies
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Question</th>
<th>Answer</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Where is my tute?</td>
<td>I wonder if they'll be my friend?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>What was that textbook I needed to buy?</td>
<td>Does anybody else understand what he's talking about?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Where is that lecture theatre again?</td>
<td>Is this lecture taped?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Why do I have to have two assignments due in the same week?</td>
<td>Where do I get my parking permit from?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Wish I could get out of work tonight…</td>
<td>What does he mean by ‘method’?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>What subjects do I have to do next semester?</td>
<td>How can I swap that tute?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Where can I get good coffee?</td>
<td>Why can’t I get into the computer lab?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>In every library staff are employed to help students…</td>
<td>What does he mean by ‘method’?</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Flinders Library

really friendly staff...

One group of staff – the Liaison Librarian’s are employed specifically to help you provide support to students
TOPIC GUIDE AND TUTORIAL WORK SHEETS FOR CRIM 1003: Crime and Cr

We can make sure students can access all readings you set.

The textbook for this topic is: ...especially high demand material.

Dangerous places: crime and the city

Introduction

In Chapter 3, Jim Sharpe discussed the emergence of specifically modern conceptions of crime in the early twentieth century (see also Guerțe, 1990). These modern conceptions are closely linked to the rise of the city and to processes of urbanization. During the nineteenth century, the city was often seen as a “dangerous place,” a place where people became criminals or victims. The city is always the subject of a tension between two representations. On the one hand, it is seen as the embodiment of progress—the basis for the development of the modern city. On the other hand, the city is also seen as a place where crime and disorder are common.
We provide a Library Assignment for first year students on FLO.

We tailor workshops and lectures for your topics.
We can also tailor library and research quizzes.

We can provide subject specific tutorials on FLO.
We have a page on FLO that directs students to relevant library resources for a subject.

We are there to help when students get stuck.
and we believe effective communication between academic staff and liaison librarians will achieve this