Faculty of Education, Humanities and Law

Faculty Awards for Excellence in Teaching

Recipients - 2013

Dr Shane Pill
School of Education

For the development of curricula and resources that reflect a command of the field and scholarly activities that have influenced a generation of pre-service teachers.

Dr Craig Taylor
School of Humanities

For commitment to excellence in research-led teaching, and for scholarly activity for improving feedback to students on assessed work for better student learning outcomes.

Brendan Grigg
Law School

For designing and implementing carefully sequenced and authentic assessments and learning experiences that support the transition to law for first year students.

Professor Larry Owens
School of Education

For respectful and supportive teaching that influences, motivates and inspires students to learn.