Awards

Congratulations to Junwen Chen who received a Level C promotion.

Kate Fairweather-Schmidt became a successful applicant for the ARC Kathleen Fitzpatrick Laureate Fellowship Mentoring Scheme at the University of Melbourne, held in December later this year.

Conference Presentations

Conference Presentations (Cont.)

Student Publications

Community Service

Mary Luszcz was invited to make a presentation on current issues in Health and Ageing at the Governor’s Leadership Foundation Program Seminar held on Saturday June 20th at Glenside Hospital.

Tracey Wade conducted a half day workshop as part of the APS Clinical College conference on treating clinical perfectionism to around 60 attendees.

Tracey Wade attended the National Eating Disorder Collaboration (NEDC) workshop in Canberra and facilitated the session on integration of prevention for eating disorders and obesity with Prof Susan Paxton from La Trobe University.

Other

Neil Brewer presented an invited colloquium on June 29, 2015, at the Developmental Research Center, University of California-Davis.

Mary Luszcz was interviewed by Channel 10 News on 27th June for a story on the Australian Longitudinal Study of Ageing, focusing on positive mentality as a key to healthy ageing.

The ALSA was also featured in an article published in the Advertiser on the 27th June. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=yK6RsdWwwhI

Michelle Short was the recipient of the Helen Bearpark Memorial Scholarship from the Australasian Sleep Association. Michelle spent 3 weeks at the University of Zurich, Switzerland, working with Prof Peter Achermann. During this time Michelle gave a presentation entitled: “How much sleep do adolescents need? (and what happens if they don’t get it)” at the Centre for Chronobiology, University of Basel, on June 2nd, and at the Chronobiology and Sleep Research Centre, University of Zurich on June 8th.

Please forward information for the July Newsletter by the end of July to karen.yardley@flinders.edu.au

Thank you