Prizes

3 Minute Thesis competition. Stephanie Morey and Farid Anvari both tied for first, each winning $125, in the School heats of the competition in May. Stephanie Morey received $500 for winning the Social and Behavioural Sciences Faculty Final in July, and went on to win the People's Choice Prize of $1,000 in the University final in August.

Appointments

Eva Kemps: elected as Convenor of the Associate Deans (Research) Network of the Australasian Council of Deans of Arts, Social Sciences and Humanities for a 2-year term.

Tracey Wade: President elect of the Eating Disorder Research Society 2018

Grants

Kemps E., & Tiggemann, M. Evaluation of an online attentional bias modification training (ABMT) tool to promote healthier eating and weight loss in overweight adults. 2016-2017, $58,810, Innovation Partnership Seed Grant, Flinders University and Mindtrain®.

Research Student Conference Travel Grants

Thu Phuong Dinh Thi: Jacobs Foundation Travel Award to attend the pre-conference workshop on July 10 2016 and the ISSBD Biennial Meetings at Vilnius, Lithuania from July 10-14, 2014 & 2016 Flinders University Overseas Travelling Fellowship

Bec Flower: XI Autism-Europe Congress in Edinburgh, Scotland (16-18 Sept), $1078

Stephanie Morey: 2016 Flinders University Overseas Travelling Fellowship of $2,168 to complete a 2.5 month research fellowship in the US later this year. As part of the fellowship, Stephanie will be completing a project with Professor Wendy Rogers in the Human Factors and Aging Laboratory at Georgia Institute of Technology. Stephanie was also awarded a $700 FUSA Development Grant to present at the Human Factors and Ergonomics Society International Annual Meeting in Washington, D.C. from the 19th to the 23rd September.

Gemma Sharp: received a scholarship to support her attendance and oral presentation at the 2016 Australasian Sexual Health Conference in November

Publications

Refereed Articles

Balzan, R. P. (in press, accepted September 2016). Re: Combining Cognitive Behaviour Therapy for psychosis with Cognitive Remediation is the only cost effective way to improve recovery in schizophrenia. Australian and New Zealand Journal of Psychiatry.

Berndsen, M., & Feather, N.T. (in press, accepted August 26, 2016). Reflecting on schadenfreude: Serious consequences of a misfortune for which one is not responsible diminish previously expressed schadenfreude; the role of immorality appraisals and moral emotions. Motivation and Emotion.

Zschorn, M., & Shute, R. H. (2016). ‘We are dealing with it the best we can’: Exploring parents’ attributions regarding their child’s physical disability using the ‘Four Ws’ framework. Clinical Child Psychology and Psychiatry, 21, 416-31.

Edited Books & Book chapters

Conference Presentations

Kemps, E., Holmes, N., Healey, G., Bell, J., Rudaizky, D., & MacLeod, C. (2016, June). Inter-relationships between negative affect, attentional bias and coping in emotional eating. 8th World Congress of Behavioral and Cognitive Therapies, Melbourne (Symposium: The interplay between emotion and biased cognitive processing in problematic consumption).

Murphy, B. M., Trewartha, K. P., & Lynd-Stevenson, R. M. (2016, August). What is it about Westernisation that’s causing the rising levels of depression? Examining the contribution of hopelessness theory. Presentation at the 17th International Mental Health Conference, Gold Coast, Queensland, Australia.

Oliver, S., & Kemps, E. (2016, June). Implicit and motivational influences of incidental physical activity. 8th

Other Presentations

Wade, T. D. Treating clinical perfectionism: Two one day workshops presented to Improving Access to Psychological Therapies (IAPT) employees in Penrith, Cumbria, UK on 29th and 30th June

Eva Kemps, on invitation, led a Panel Discussion on Recent Developments and Applications of Cognitive Bias Modification at the 8th World Congress of Behavioral and Cognitive Therapies, Melbourne, 25 June 2016.

Professional and Community Service

Eva Kemps organised and chaired the Associate Deans (Research) Network Pre-Conference Day of the 2016 Australasian Council of Deans of Arts, Social Sciences and Humanities Conference, Hobart, 31 August 2016.

Stephanie Morey presented a talk on the process of completing a research project at the South Australian Certificate of Education (SACE) Research Project Expo on August 10

Other

Gemma Sharp, Julie Mattiske and Kirsten Vale's article entitled "Motivations, Expectations and Experiences of Labiaplasty: A Qualitative Study" in the Aesthetic Surgery Journal was chosen as the Editor's Choice for the September 2016 Issue. There is a video about the article at: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ENCe5tU_fRg

Departures

After submitting her PhD thesis for examination Gemma Sharp has taken up a Post-Doctoral Research position at Curtin University (Perth).