Teaching and Learning Innovation Grants

Closing dates
Stage 1: 30 September 2013
Stage 2: 25 October 2013

Grant applications are conducted in two stages. Stage 1 is assessed by the Applicant’s Faculty Teaching and Learning Committee. Submissions from areas or units not associated with a faculty are assessed by nominees of the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic).

From 2011, two specific Flinders Teaching and Learning Innovation Grants will be available for submissions that show innovation in the area of internationalisation of the curriculum. Internationalisation of the curriculum is defined by the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) as:

A curriculum with an international orientation in content and/or form, aimed at preparing students for performing (professionally and socially) in an international and multicultural context and designed for domestic and internationals students.

The key component of an application is the written submission addressing the criteria, in each stage, as stated below.

Checklist: Stage 1 (maximum 2 A4 pages)

- Clear specification of the innovative nature of the proposed educational activity.
- Explanation of how the innovation relates to current teaching and learning approaches in the topic/course/discipline and/or other teaching and learning activity and reasons for thinking the innovation is worthwhile.
- Identification of benefits to staff and/or learning outcomes for students.
- Evidence of sustainability of the innovation and potential for wider application to course, discipline, faculty and/or University.
- Plan for development, implementation, monitoring, evaluation and wider dissemination of the innovation.
- Evidence of support from School/Faculty, Board or Unit not associated with a Faculty. (Applicants from the Faculty of Science and Engineering are asked to provide a half-page statement of support from their Dean of School and an indicative budget.)

Checklist: Stage 2 (maximum 6 A4 pages)

All of the components stated in Checklist: Stage 1 plus

- an appropriate and justified budget.

Guidelines are available here.
