Collecting Colour

26 March - 8 May 2011

Illustrations from Kylie Dunstan’s award-winning book Collecting Colour tell the story of Rose and Olive who live in the Top End of Australia and learn to make woven pandanus baskets. The book was inspired during the year Dunstan spent employed by Injalak Art Centre in Western Arnhem Land, where she made many trips ‘out bush’ with local women to collect pandanus leaves and natural dyes used to make the woven objects.

Exhibition opening
5 - 7pm Saturday 26 March 2011

Opening speaker
Brian Parkes
Managing Director, JamFactory Contemporary Craft & Design

Gallery hours
Tuesday - Friday 11- 4, Saturday & Sunday 12 - 4

Location
Flinders University City Gallery
State Library of South Australia
North Terrace, Adelaide

RSVP Friday 18 March
Phone 08 8207 7055
Email city.gallery@flinders.edu.au

Kylie Dunstan, Collecting Colour, 2009, Copyright the artist, Photograph courtesy Lothian Children’s Books, an imprint of Hachette Australia