Every year, some of the brightest and most talented graduates from all over the world join our global trainee programs. The Global IS program combines on-the-job and formal training with up to four assignments in two or three countries over 18-24 months. You will get the exposure you would expect from a global leader, experienced mentors, supportive colleagues and the freedom to take your career where you want. All you need, in fact, to create a lasting legacy for the business, for society and for yourself.

Joining our team as an Information Systems global trainee at ABB, you will gain experience through a series of demanding assignments and international placements. The exceptional people you work with, the challenging projects you tackle and the global scale of our business will give you the skills you need to build a world-class career in IS. After successful completion of the program, you will be offered a permanent position in one of our local units.

There will be three assignments as part of this program:

* One six-month assignment in your home country as an introduction to the business.
* One six-month assignment at ABB Headquarters in Zurich, Switzerland, where you will get an overview of ABB's operations and work on a more strategic level.
* One six-to-twelve-month assignment in another country, where you will gain international experience and insights into the operational aspects of IS.

The professional focus areas of the assignments include:

1. IS service delivery (Infrastructure operation ; Application operation ; Security ; Risk management )
2. IS architecture (Corporate roadmaps ; Integrating systems ; Standard setting )
3. IS sourcing (Vendor management ; Contract negotiations ; License management )
4. IS Applications ( Business Demand; Application Development )

To be considered for this role you will be:

* Recent graduate (Master of Science or equivalent) with good grades in Information Technology or Information Systems
* Not more than 1.5 years of professional work experience (excluding internships) since your master's (or equivalent degree)
* Excellent language skills: Fluency in English is required, other languages are a plus
* A global mindset and desire for an international career
* A mature and responsible personality
* Australian citizen or permanent resident (includes New Zealand citizens)

You will have demonstrated leadership, teamwork and collaboration abilities, and display future leader aspirations. Excellent communication skills are a must, along with the ability to adapt to changing environments. Given the nature of this program individuals must be willing and able to travel/ relocate as required.

If you meet the above criteria and are excited about working with Global leader, apply today.

All applications are to be made online through our website: http://new.abb.com/careers/job-advertisement/details/56537118/abb-global-is-trainee

Our application process consists of a phone interview, face-to-face interviews, a psychometric test and a pre-employment medical test. Expected start date will be October 2015.

ABB (www.abbaustralia.com.au) is a leader in power and automation technologies that enable utility and industry customers to improve their performance while lowering environmental impact. The ABB Group of companies operates in around 100 countries and employs about 145,000 people.

Closing date for applications: No closing date provided - please check with the organisation for this information

Adelaide Festival Centre - Steel Ryan Fellowship

Adelaide Festival Centre
Adelaide Festival Centre Steel Ryan Fellowship
A Unique Developmental Opportunity in Arts Administration

The Adelaide Festival Centre Steel Ryan Fellowship
Aboriginal people are strongly encouraged to apply

Adelaide Festival Centre is the creative hub of South Australia producing bolder, exciting and extensive program of festivals, events, performances and activities.

As a result of an endowment from Richard Ryan AO the Festival Centre is very pleased to be able to offer a 12 month Fellowship, commencing in March 2015, to a pro-active individual, determined to develop a career in the arts. The 2015/2016 Steel Ryan Fellowship will have a particular focus on programming and marketing of Indigenous work, the GreenRoom program and multicultural audiences.

If you are a culturally sensitive arts, marketing or communications graduate (graduating soon or even have a few years of arts experience) seeking an entry level position within the arts, passionate about arts and culture and its role in connecting and enriching the Indigenous and non-Indigenous communities, then this opportunity might be for you!

The Fellowship has been designed to provide intensive professional experience working in South Australia’s centre of creativity and heart of the arts.

The successful applicant will have the opportunity to learn and experience many of the aspects that make up the programming, marketing, audience development and production functions of arts administration. There will also be the opportunity to establish effective networks with media, artists and production representatives particularly in Indigenous and multicultural communities. This role will require a willingness to work flexible hours, including some evenings and weekends around events.

The Fellow will be expected to assist in developing strategies to attract new audiences with a focus on younger Indigenous and multicultural audiences, assist with programming of Indigenous work and marketing it to Indigenous and non-Indigenous audiences.

There will be specific projects to undertake that will contribute to the Festival Centre’s objectives as well as provide the opportunity to showcase skills and improve chances of future employment.

To be successful you will need:

• relevant tertiary qualification (or close to completing) in Arts, Media, Marketing or Communications
• ability to engage and work effectively with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islanders
• knowledge of, understanding and experience with Indigenous communities and the arts
• excellent written and verbal communication skills including basic computer skills
• demonstrated ability to work independently and autonomously, as well as part of a multi-disciplinary team
• a commitment to the arts and to a career in arts administration

Applicants will be assessed according to their academic achievement, qualifications, experience and the value they are likely to bring to the organisation.

This is an Aboriginal Designated Position. Aboriginality is a genuine occupational requirement under Section 14 of the Anti-discrimination Act.

Aboriginal people are strongly encouraged to apply

All applications must be submitted via www.seek.com.au/job/28264322 by using the Apply button below or to the right, by 5pm Friday 5 April 2015. All applications will be treated in strict confidence.

Enquiries can be directed to Mary-Anne O’Leary, on 8216 8572.

You must have the right to live and work in this location to apply for this job.

Australian Government Solicitor - AGS National Graduate

LLAW Law

Australian Government Solicitor

AGS National Graduate Program

Location: Canberra, ACT

The Australian Government Solicitor (AGS) is unique: we are a national, commercially competitive law firm regarded as the leading lawyers to government, providing expert services in all areas of law connected with government. Our team of over 600 employees is located in 8 offices around Australia.

Law graduates are invited to apply for the 2016 AGS National Graduate Program. Applications can be made online between 3 March and 17 April 2015. The majority of law graduates will be based in Canberra, with a few graduates based in State offices.

The AGS national graduate program is a 12 month training and development program commencing 8 February 2016 culminating in a placement as a practising lawyer within AGS (subject to probation). The program is designed to ensure our graduates are exposed to a number of areas of law to enable them to develop a broad knowledge and understanding of AGS, our clients and our business.

Our graduate program has the following features:

* an induction in Canberra in the first week of the program
* Canberra-based graduates undertake rotations in each of our 3 national legal practices (AGS Dispute Resolution, AGS Commercial and the Office of General Counsel) for approximately 3 months
* graduates based in state offices undertake a rotation in AGS Dispute Resolution and AGS Commercial as determined by the business needs of the office at the time

Australian National Audit Office - ANAO 2016 Graduate Program

The Assurance Audit Services Group (AASG) provides independent assurance on the financial statements and financial administration of all Australian Government entities. AASG plays an important role in seeking to improve financial management and administration across the federal public sector. We are looking for accounting graduates with a specialisation in commerce, business, economics or IT systems.

The Performance Audit Services Group (PASG) contributes to improved public sector administration and accountability through a program of performance audits of Australian Government entities and Commonwealth partners. These audits evaluate the implementation of programs, policies, projects and activities. We are looking for graduates with strong research and analytical skills from disciplines such as economics, social science, law, business, communications and environmental science.

IT Audit provides leading edge IT support and resources to both AASG and PASG. IT Audit staff have a diverse range of professional and technical backgrounds including project management, system administration, database development, data analysis and financial-systems management. We are looking for graduates from IT-related disciplines such as Information Technology, Information Systems, Computer Science and Business Analytics.

About the Program

Well Rewarded – enjoy an attractive starting salary with excellent career progression opportunities. Intensive Training – experience a robust individual career development program to extend your skills, with full support for CA, CPA, IPA or CISA qualifications.

Professionalism – we offer a work environment which understands its responsibilities professionally and supports high performance through respect for staff and their contribution to our achievements.

Variety of roles – while we always need talented accountants and finance experts, graduates of the Arts, Management, Law, Social Sciences, Public Administration, Commerce and Communications make up around half our staff. So whether you have an accounting degree or have strong research, analysis or writing skills, we have a role for you.

Job Diversity – great client variety with over 250 Commonwealth government departments/agencies.

Real Impact – provide assurance on public sector performance and accountability. Work on complex and challenging projects that make a difference. You can find more information on the work we do through the ANAO Audit Work Program: http://www.anao.gov.au/About-Us/Audit-Work-Program.

Work/Life Balance – we encourage flexible employment arrangements so you can balance work with outside interests.

Australian Security Intelligence Organisation (ASIO) - Technical

Technical Officer Graduate Program

* $64,429 (plus 15.4% Superannuation)
* Advancement to $68,568 upon successful completion of program
* Canberra

ASIO facilitates the lawful collection of intelligence by technical means which is then processed within ASIO to deliver security intelligence advice to the Australian Government. As well as collecting intelligence, Technical Professionals can be integral to the processing of data and its integration with other parts of the broader "intelligence picture". Technical intelligence is an important and growing part of the picture in a modern global security environment.

ASIO's Technical Officer Graduate Program will provide a one year structured program with placements in a range of technical areas supported by a senior mentor. Have you completed, or are in your final year of study of, a degree of relevance to technical intelligence, i.e. Engineering, Computer Science, Software, Networking or Telecommunications? The Graduate Program will enable you to develop the skills and knowledge required to undertake a range of roles and establish a career in ASIO.

This program offers:

* a starting salary of $64,429 with advancement to $68,568 on successful completion of the program;
* placements in technical areas such as; software development, technical development including bespoke electronic and mechanical design and production, telecommunications, computer forensics, technical operations and others;
* an ongoing Canberra-based position;
* annual leave of 20 days per annum;
* access to a wide range of development opportunities throughout your career in ASIO; and
* a career with a difference.

Closing Date: Sunday, 5 April 2015

Applicants must be Australian citizens. Selected applicants will undergo an extensive security vetting process. Your application will be treated in the strictest of confidence. We ask that you do not discuss your application with anyone.

Please refer to our website for details and to access the online application www.asio.gov.au http://www.asio.gov.au/Careers/ASIO-Careers/Technical-Officer-Graduate-Program.html

While you were studying day after day for many years, what did you dream of? Was it to join a highly respected and exciting organisation? Was it to learn and grow? Was it about making a difference and having an impact? Was it to be respected for the contribution you would make? Was it to channel your passion and your interests into a fulfilling and rewarding career? You'll find all of that here at BAE Systems Australia.

Our graduate program will give you the freedom to share your ideas in an environment that inspires professional growth and success whilst fostering team work and inclusive behaviour. You will be trusted to innovate and are encouraged to be bold with your ideas. As an equal opportunity employer of choice, we provide a collegiate environment in which you will enjoy flexibility, a commitment to environmental zero harm and a genuine focus on diversity and inclusion.

Each and every day will bring new challenges that will allow you to put what you have learned into practice. You will begin your career in the Transaction Processing team leaning the foundations. Placements will usually be 12 months in duration and are aimed at developing your experience in financial accounting, financial reporting, management accounting and project accounting. This experience will complement your post graduate syllabus while that qualification is being undertaken. At the end of the program, our goal is that you will be equipped with the technical skills and experience to take on more senior finance roles within the business.

To be eligible, as a minimum, you must have already completed or be due to complete in 2015 a university degree level qualification in accounting, commerce or finance and have a commitment to undertake your post graduate qualifications (CPA or CA).

You’ll need demonstrated team work, communication and problem solving skills coupled with a strong desire to learn and a flexible approach to work. Due to the nature of our work, you’ll also need to be an Australian citizen and eligible for Australian Defence security clearance.

Apply today! Visit www.baesystems.com to learn more about the BAE Systems business.

Applications should be made on-line, addressed to the Recruitment Team and include:
• Current resume and cover letter
• Official academic transcripts to date

Applications without a current resume and copy of an academic transcript will not be considered.

We welcome and encourage applications from women, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islanders for these opportunities.

Applications will close April 24th, 2015 and it is unlikely we will be in a position to determine a final shortlist until after that time. Graduate recruitment campaigns can take some months to work through. Our recruitment process will involve an initial video interview followed by an on-site interview and assessment. If we are able to provide you with feedback earlier than this, we certainly will.

In the meantime, thank you in advance for your interest and for your patience.

Capgemini - Who are we?

Capgemini is one of the world’s foremost providers and leading suppliers of consulting, technology and outsourcing services. Present in 44 countries with more than 140,000 employees, the Capgemini Group helps its clients transform in order to improve their performance and competitive positioning.

At Capgemini, it is our commitment to build a pipeline of talent capable of achieving our vision and future success. An important part of this commitment is bringing on young and bright individuals who share our values and goals through our Graduate Career Program. We will equip you with the necessary business knowledge and skills to take on future responsibilities within our business, to exceed expectations in everything you do and grow into Capgemini’s next generation of leaders.

You will be working with clients who see us as their partner, and what makes us different is the Collaborative Business Experience. That defines who we are and the way we work. It’s about sharing our deep knowledge and expertise with our clients, applying cutting-edge business and IT solutions and creating results that last. It is about teamwork, shared goals, mutual support and respect.

About the program

Our new Associate Consultants are mentored and developed by a talented management team and gain exposure to a wide variety of projects that span a range of industry sectors and deliver solutions for our clients.

Successful candidates undergo learning and development in soft skills and functional competencies delivered through a variety of formats and will work in a team environment to complete multiple projects, addressing real business challenges and gaining a broad business understanding. You will receive support through our career development and mentoring program, the Associate Consultant Development Program, Core Consulting Skills training and will be partnered with a Buddy and Mentor for additional support.

We are hiring Associate Consultants into our Application Lifecycle Services (ALS), Business Information Management (BIM) and Business and Technology Consulting (BTC) practices. Through the induction, on-boarding and formal learning and development program, Associate Consultants will have the opportunity to learn practical delivery skills including (but not limited to) requirements gathering, business process design and documentation, application and solution design, data architecture and analytics, stakeholder management, functional and gap analysis, business case development, and project scoping and management methodology. In addition, candidates will undergo training for relevant technologies (such as SAP, Oracle, Salesforce, Java etc.) in order to develop the skills required to service our clients.

What is a graduate?

The Capgemini Australia Graduate Career Program is open to Australian Citizens and Permanent Residents who have either graduated in the last 24 months or will have graduated by December 2014. Recent graduates with up to 18 months business experience in Management, Finance, Commerce, Economics, Engineering or Computer Sciences are highly regarded. In addition to degree qualifications, all applicants to the Graduate Career Program are expected to possess excellent communication and problem solving skills, strong academic records and be highly motivated.

The Department of Finance (Finance) is a central agency in the Australian Public Service and plays a significant role in many areas of the government's agenda. One of our key responsibilities is supporting the delivery of the Australian Government Budget, but our work extends well beyond managing government expenditure. Some of the areas we manage and provide advice on include:

- key asset sales
- the government's financial framework
- entitlements for parliamentarians and their employees
- Government Business Enterprises
- general insurance services to other government agencies
- risk management
- whole-of-government procurement
- public sector reform

We are looking for high-calibre, ambitious graduates with a broad range of qualifications and experience who have effective communication skills, are committed to excellence, and who show personal drive and integrity.

Applications for the 2016 Graduate Programme are open now and close on Monday 6 April 2015. In order to apply you must:

- be an Australian citizen, or going to be granted Australian citizenship before commencement of the program and be able to provide evidence of this
- have maintained at least a credit average throughout your university degree
- be completing your final year of study or have completed your degree in the last five years
- be willing to relocate to Canberra

Did you know? It's an exciting time to join Finance. We are embarking on a programme of internal change that will modernise the way we do business. We are seeking to be a modern public service agency that is agile, responsive and connected.

The Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade (DFAT) is seeking outstanding graduates from a range of disciplines to participate in its two year Canberra-based professional development program.

The department’s role is to advance the interests of Australia and Australians internationally. This involves working to strengthen Australia’s security; enhancing Australia’s prosperity; delivering an effective and high quality aid program; and helping Australian travellers and Australians overseas.

Policy graduates undertake a two-year professional development program in Canberra, combining work placements with formal training modules. The program commences in February with a comprehensive induction program and a first placement. On completion of the program, graduates are eligible to apply for overseas postings.

Policy graduates work to advance Australia’s interests across a broad range of areas — from security to human rights, international trade to development and aid management, and represent Australia in a formal capacity while serving overseas.

The department is seeking to fill a number of graduate positions with Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander applicants. The filling of some of these vacancies is therefore intended to constitute a special measure under section 8(1) of the Racial Discrimination Act 1975. We strongly encourage Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people to apply.

People with disabilities are also strongly encouraged to apply for these vacancies. RecruitAbility applies to this vacancy. Under the RecruitAbility scheme you will be invited to participate in further assessment activity for the vacancy if you choose to apply under the scheme; declare you have a disability; and meet the minimum requirements for the position. For more information see: http://www.apsc.gov.au/disability/recruitability

Applicants must be Australian citizens at time of application and must have finished at least three-year bachelor degree by 31 December 2015. If you only hold a qualification from an institution based overseas, your application will only be accepted if Australian documentation recognising your qualification is submitted with your initial application.

Applications will be accepted until 3:00pm AEDT on 16 March 2015 and should be lodged online, using the application form at www.dfat.gov.au/careers/current-vacancies. Information on the program is available at: www.dfat.gov.au/careers/graduate-recruitment. Applications received after 3:00pm AEDT on 16 March 2015 will not be accepted. Should you have any difficulties lodging your application, please contact the department’s HR services provider, Clarius, on (02) 6260 7533 or by email to dfat@clairius.com.au.

You’re ambitious. You’ve studied hard and you want to put your knowledge and skills to the test. If you’ve recently graduated, or are about to, become a graduate and set yourself up for a world of opportunities.

With early responsibility and the support and training to grow, you’ll build the confidence to pursue your goals. Exposed to a wide range of clients, you can expect to develop your networks, collaborate with specialists, learn from mentors and even study for postgraduate qualifications, including the Chartered Accountant qualification or a Masters of Tax. You’ll begin to build your technical, leadership and communication skills, and be responsible for parts of projects right away, working in a business area of your choice. As a graduate with EY you’ll be able to add value to your clients and shape your career as a professional.

At our graduate induction you’ll meet other new graduates from your office. Your buddy and your counsellor will help you learn your way around the firm, set your goals and plan your development. You’ll be well paid and have the chance to enjoy some excellent benefits, including the opportunity to apply for three months leave after you’ve been with us for 18 months. You might also find yourself working interstate or overseas.

Federation Centres can be found at the heart of many local communities and specialises in the ownership and management of 65 shopping centres nationally.

At Federation Centres, we believe in partnering with our stakeholders to provide engaging consumer experiences for our local communities. At the heart of our success is our team who are passionate about delivering our brand promise - Love our Local Shopping - and helping to drive sustainable returns for our investors. We aim to lead our industry in the way we do business by working together with shared purpose and belief; and tackling challenges to create long-term sustainable solutions.

Being part of our Graduate Program means having the opportunity to explore the passionate business that drives Federation Centres. The program consists of three rotations across three business and functional areas including Centre Management & Operations, Leasing, Development, Finance, IT, People & Culture, and Marketing, over an 18 month period. Your personal development will be closely supported by a dedicated Senior Mentor who will broaden your perspective of our business and industry. You will also participate in corporate projects and community initiatives.

We are seeking aspiring future leaders – people who thrive on constant challenge, take initiative and are eager to learn and develop their skills and capabilities. If you think you have the drive, the ambition and the 'smarts' to think outside the box, then we warmly encourage your application.

To be eligible you must be an Australian permanent resident or citizen. Ideally you would have gained some work experience while studying or working after graduation in a corporate/commercial role. You have/will successfully complete by December 2015 a three year minimum undergraduate degree in one of the following areas: Property, Leasing, Finance, IT, Marketing, HR, Communications, Commerce or Business.

Applications close Thursday 2 April 2015.

You will be asked the following questions when you apply:

* Are you eligible to work in Australia?
* When are you available to start?
* Do you have a relevant degree or tertiary qualification?
* Please confirm the option that most reflects your undergraduate course: Property or Leasing related degree / Finance or Business related degree / Marketing

The teenage years are often the most transformative and defining stage of a student's life. We see it as our mission to help every student on the path to a holistic development in the areas of academics, extra-curriculars, and character. Whether the next destination is a boarding school or an university, our education consultants provide services for our clients in (1) long-term education and career planning, (2) boarding school and university application strategy, (3) personal portfolio building, (4) interview training and application essay coaching, (5) application process management. Almost all of our assignments are multi-years in duration, and our consultants are responsible to guide, shape, and groom our students as they grow through their critical character-forming years. Our consultants are stationed in Hong Kong but have to travel frequently to Mainland China and other Asian cities to meet our clients when needed.

Ideal Candidate

Do you care enough? We are looking for smart and self-driven independent thinkers who share our passion in life and our belief in education planning; vibrant communicators who love interacting with teenagers and their parents as well as professionals who take pride in delivering excellence and strive to make a difference in others' lives.

Ideal candidates should have a mature life view, backed by solid internship experience. We especially value candidates with strong client servicing skills, processes tracking ability, and sensitivity to deadlines. Candidates with a good command of both spoken and written skills in any Asian Languages, and an in-depth understanding of Asian culture will have an advantage. Living experience in Asia is helpful but not essential, and prior counseling experience is not necessary.

About Foundation Global Education

Foundation Global Education is one of the leading independent education consultancies in Asia specialising in admission counseling and related training services for students wishing to enter top-tier boarding schools and universities across North America and Europe.

This workshop assists overseas students to find well paid part-time work in Adelaide. It is particularly useful for students who wish to build their skills and experience to give them a head start for their careers in Australia after graduation. Most international graduates do not find it an easy task to gain appropriately paid work in Australia.

This is a skills development course that focuses on how to access the four key industry/vocation sectors where students can get part-time work the easiest, and where they will they can maximise their income through above average wages.

It covers

* The four key skills all Australian employers require and how to gain them.
* How to access the four industry/vocation sectors where students have the best chance of getting quality and well paid work
* Detailed knowledge of Australian work place culture and your workplace rights so you are not taken advantage of by unscrupulous employers in pay or unsafe practices
* The revision of your resume to meet Australian best business practice
* Unique letters of application and other strategies to ensure you gain an interview
* Questions likely to be asked in job interviews and how to answer these to best effect
* How to use this part-time work experience to gain a career start position

WHEN Saturday March 21 2015 1.00 - 4.00 pm (Workshop 27)
WHERE Seminar room 1 State Library of SA North Terrace Adelaide
COST $5.00 GST incl (includes full set of course notes)

Register to euan@gdaysa.com.au or 0401 124 387 noting workshop 27. Payment options will be supplied on registration.

PRESENTER: Euan Miller MA Hons (Otago) GDM (NSW) MBA (Adel)
Euan is a director of g’day [sa], and past Governor of Rotary International, an educational and humanitarian service organisation made up of 1.2 M business and community leaders who donate their time and skills throughout 200 countries. Euan has had extensive training experience and has had a wide-ranging career in senior executive positions in both the public and private sectors. g’day [sa] is focused on the needs of international students. It helps you meet Australians, build networks and gain jobs through social activities, unique weekend trips with Rotary and job and leadership skills development.

Lend Lease 2016 Graduate Program - Engineering

Listed on the Australian Securities Exchange (ASX Top 50), Lend Lease employs more than 12,000 people around the globe. Our vision is to 'create the best places' and our Engineering business has delivered some of Australia's most iconic infrastructure projects, including Sydney's M2 and M7 motorways, Melbourne's Peninsula Link and Westgate Freeway as well as the Anzac Bridge in Sydney, Brisbane's Gateway Bridge and the Graham Farmer Tunnel in Perth.

We create packaged solutions for the delivery of infrastructure assets, including development, financing, design and construction. Working across Australia, we offer advanced technical capabilities and significant construction resources for the creation of critical transport and infrastructure assets, under a variety of delivery models.

The Engineering Graduate Program is designed to provide a structured approach to development, while still allowing participants to contribute effectively in their project or office role. It encompasses a broad range of engineering disciplines, including civil, electrical, mechanical, environmental and safety; and covers a wide scope of engineering activities, such as design, paving, marine and mechanical works.

As a competency based course, the program offers participants a rounded view of the engineering landscape. While key fundamentals of engineering, such as safety, procurement and contract management are essential components of the program, graduates will also be exposed to a variety of additional disciplines on sites, including survey, estimating and environmental management.

The program has been developed to align with Engineers Australia's Chartered status. Graduates are encouraged to take ownership of their development and are provided with the tools and guidance to achieve this.

Our projects can be found around the country, so it is essential our Graduates are prepared to travel to regional areas when required.

Our aim is to create a workplace where people are respected and encouraged to fulfil their potential. We embrace all employee differences and foster a culture that supports diversity and inclusion.

No matter where your office is, you will be a part of a company that values you. At Lend Lease, we invest in you professionally and personally so that you perform to your full potential to leave behind positive legacies in years to come.

If you see yourself as a future leader at Lend Lease then apply now and be part of our success.

About Mondelez International
Over the years, we’ve been known as Kraft Foods and Cadbury – one of the fastest growing food manufacturers in Australia and New Zealand. From 1 July 2013 we’ll be known as Mondelez International. With a new name and a new look to match. And even though these things are changing, what we do and the joyful spirit we do it with, remains the same.

Every day we’re working together to create delicious moments of joy – for those who supply us, who work with us and those who make our products a staple in their homes.

Pernod Ricard Winemakers
Graduate Opportunities - Wine Ambassador - Australia
Location: Sydney

Pernod Ricard Winemakers, the wine division of Pernod Ricard, is part of the Global Pernod Ricard Group – the World’s Co-leader in the Wine and Spirits Industry with an unrivalled collection of iconic brands, including Jacobs Creek®, Brancott Estate®, Campo Viejo® and more.

Kick-start your career on a global stage working for the world’s most loved wine brands globally. For many it will be the first step on a lifelong journey within Group Pernod Ricard.

The Pernod Ricard Winemakers Graduate Ambassador Program is a once in a lifetime opportunity to live the dream. This experience will enable you to embrace our wine culture, develop a broad range of skills, gain valuable international experience, break new frontiers and become a pioneer for our iconic wine brands.

Jacob's Creek remains one of the most well-known, trusted and enjoyed Australian wines around the world. It delivers fresh, elegant and great tasting wines that show true character.

We are looking for a Graduate Ambassador that has a passion for wine and a ton of character. You must be a university graduate with a full driver's license and have the right to live and work in Australia to apply. Most importantly, you must have a genuine interest in wine, a strong sense of ethics, be keen to learn from our team of experts and help us continue to lead innovation within our industry.

This role will primarily operate in the capacity as 'Wine Educator' for Pernod Ricard in a dedicated market for 2 years, responsible for representing an assigned wine brand from Pernod Ricard Wine portfolio. Key global markets could include USA and India.

You will receive an initial 9 months of intensive training that includes vintage experiences in some of our most iconic international wine regions, followed by the opportunity to work with our commercial and marketing teams. Upon completion of your training, you will arrive at your foreign market, meet the team and immerse yourself in your new surrounds.

Each market has its own challenges but you can expect the following to be on your 'to do' list:

* Be the brand’s ‘product expert’, promote to and educate about the product using superior brand and category knowledge
* Conducting tasting sessions with targeted consumer groups and influencing the big players in the market, from the main distributors to barmen and loyal brand advocate
* Instill a ‘wine culture’ within the Pernod Ricard affiliate network through increased exposure to wine and wine education
* Support local team by organising, implementing and representing the brand at Trade and Consumer events
* Provide market intelligence and information on competition as required
* Propose, present and initiate new marketing activities
* Immersing yourself into the culture and be our ear to the ground
* Be a social media mogul, blogging and posting updates about your progress

Apply now and tell us why you could be our future vintage. Applications must include a 3 minute video detailing why you think you are the next best vintage. To do this you will need to paste your private URL (from YouTube, DailyMotion, Vimeo, etc.) in the box provided when applying for the role.

Applications close: 26 June 2015

Thales Australia & New Zealand
ICT Graduate Engineer 2016

Location: ACT

It's no secret that talented people are the key to our success. That's why our Graduate Development Programme aims to nurture your talent and help you realise your potential.

Who are we?

Thales (pronounced 'ta-lis' like 'Alice') is a premier provider of systems, products and services in the Defence, security and civil markets in Australia and throughout the world. In other words, we are a global technology firm specialising in avionics, combat systems, armoured vehicles, armaments and other awesome stuff. But this is just the tip of the iceberg, for more info, feel free to check out our website www.thalesgroup.com/careers

We are looking for ICT Graduates to join our Secure Communications and Information Systems business in Canberra.

What does the job involve?

ICT Graduates will be responsible for requirements analysis, technical studies, design tasks, implementation, systems integration and ICT support activities to provide new and upgraded systems for THALES projects and bids. Key areas of responsibility are:

- Work under broad professional guidance, independently or as a team member, to analyse requirements, design, implement, test and support ICT products and solutions
- Undertake learning and training activities to develop skills and experience as an ICT Graduate
- Keep abreast of technology developments and provide recommendations and advice on technology selection
- Present and demonstrate solutions to Thales customers
- Attend and participate in regular departmental and project meetings
- Attend and participate in technical reviews (both internal and external)

Ideally, you will have experience in network and computer hardware and a range of software development tools (IDE, build scripts etc). A graduate with a genuine interest in a networking and communications environment will be ideal for this role.

Your passion counts for more than you think

At Thales, we are interested in the person, not just the academic record. We are looking for team players, progressive thinkers and passionate communicators. Our ideal candidates want to be leaders in their profession and have the drive to learn and succeed.

Graduate Programme Requirements

To be considered for the position, you will have:

- Have completed, or be in the final year of, an ICT tertiary qualification (e.g. Information Technology, Software Development, Computer Science, Information Management)
- Well-rounded candidates who have successfully balanced university, work experience and extra-curricular activities.
- Credit Average minimum
- Australian citizenship (to be able to gain Australian Defence Security Clearance.)

Thales recruitment and selection process:

- Phone interview
- Online Psychometric Assessment
- Assessment centre and information session
- Pre-employment checks which will include reference checks and in some cases Medical assessments and Police Check.

Interested? Apply online by completing your profile and attaching your CV and academic transcript and AU/NZ passport/PR, or valid driver's license/birth certificate. Applications will not be considered if transcripts are not attached.

Applications close April 9th 2015.

The Aurora Project: Anthro | Social Science internships
Aurora Internship Program
Winter 2015 round

The Aurora Internship Program introduces students and graduates (including mature aged) of anthropology and other social sciences (archaeology, cultural heritage, environmental management, history, human geography and sociology) to career opportunities in native title, policy development, research and social justice, all with an Indigenous focus.

The Program aims to provide assistance to the anthropology and research staff of under-resourced and over-worked Native Title Representative Bodies (NTRBs), Prescribed Bodies Corporate (PBCs) as well as to various other organisations working in these areas including Indigenous corporations, government bodies, community groups and other policy organisations.

There are two intakes for interns annually, during the summer and winter university breaks, for five to six weeks, with some flexibility for graduates. Applications open in March and August of each year.

NTRBs employ lawyers, anthropologists and other researchers, field officers and administrative staff to represent and support Indigenous communities in native title claims, advocacy and other negotiations. Other host organisations advocate policies of reconciliation and equal rights for Indigenous Australians while some provide assistance to Indigenous communities with cultural heritage activities, as well as associated business, research and community-based initiatives.

NTRBs, PBCs and other host organisations are located in: Adelaide, Albany, Alice Springs, Bendigo, Brisbane, Broome, Cairns, Camooweal, Canberra, Cooktown, Darwin, Fitzroy Crossing, Geraldton, Kalgoorlie, Karratha, Katherine, Kununurra, Melbourne, Moree, Perth, Port Hedland, Sydney and Thursday Island, Umuwa, Wadeye and Wollongong.

Longer paid placements
Applications are also open to anthropology and other social science students and graduates as well as qualified anthropologists and archaeologists, usually following on from an internship. Placements can start at two months and may continue for up to one year. Duties, conditions and remuneration vary from position to position.

Applications
Applications for the winter 2015 round of internships will be accepted online via our website between 9am AEST Monday 2nd March through to 5pm AEST Friday 27th March 2015.

More information
For more information and to apply please visit our website at: http://www.auroraproject.com.au/aurorainternshipprogram

Aurora is hoping in 2015 to once again offer two scholarships to undertake a Masters of Mineral Law and Policy at the University of Dundee in Scotland. The scholarships have been renamed the Mineral Law NTRB Scholarships (formerly known as the Australian Government Rio Tinto NTRB Scholarships) and will be open to lawyers who are currently working or interested in working in the NTRB system.

Aurora is currently awaiting the outcome of a funding application to PM&C through the Indigenous Advancement Strategy (IAS), which will determine whether or not we will continue offering the Scholarship Program. We expect to hear from PM&C in the coming 6 weeks. It is important to note that Rio Tinto, which had partially funded the Program since inception, has decided not to continue supporting the Program going forward.

If PM&C agrees to fund the Program, the two scholarships will once again cover all the expenses involved in undertaking a one year Master of Laws (approximately AU $50,000) and will be open to any Australian resident with a law degree. It is hoped that PM&C will also agree to continue to provide an additional AU $15,000 towards the living expenses of each scholarship recipient who is working within the NTRB system at the time they receive the scholarship.

In all likelihood, the successful candidates will be required to commit to work within the NTRB system for a minimum period of two years on completion of their studies, and possibly longer, depending on the outcome of discussions with PM&C.

Applications
On-line applications will open on the day after we (hopefully) receive positive notification from PM&C and will stay open for 4 weeks. We anticipate this to be in mid/late March (TBC).

Want to Teach in the UK? Vision Teaching is Coming to You!, London, UK

* Do you see yourself teaching in UK?
* Do you love to travel and work with flexibility?
* Or would you prefer a full time teaching position?

Vision Teaching are coming to you!

Vision Teaching is a UK based teacher recruitment agency, we are based in London, England. Currently we are recruiting for a number of teachers to join our staff in 2015 and 2016; we have a variety of full time contracts and substitute teaching contracts available. We will be coming to Australia's East Coast in March 2015 and if you'd like to meet up we'd be more than happy to try and arrange a time and date! Vision Teaching will be holding information sessions on the following dates:
* 19th to 23rd March in Brisbane
* 24th & 25th March in Melbourne
* 26th & 27th March in Sydney

The Vision Teaching substitute teaching contract, also known as our Guaranteed Payment Scheme (GPS), is very popular with recent graduates, as it allows a 'grace' period for when you first arrive in the UK. Substitute teaching is a great way to 'get to know' the London schools and eases yourself into the UK Curriculum. This is a fantastic opportunity for those who are ready for a challenge and are keen to travel, socially interact with new people and explore London! Not to forget all with a stable contract that allows you flexibility. We also offer the GPS: LT Contract for those who want to get into a full time position managing your own classroom straight away.

Key role and responsibilities for this contract are;
* Guaranteed full time salary each week whether you work or not.
* 5 days per week substitute teaching across the year groups, from early years to upper primary.
* Work in a cluster of London primary schools in one local area.
* Covering lessons already planned by the regular class teacher.
* No requirement for you to plan or assess lessons but to mark the work only.
* Engaging with the students, enabling learning in a fun environment.
* General Behaviour Management, to ensure every child is learning.
* Obtain additional UK recognised qualification-QTS (Qualified Teacher Status) automatically.
* Immediate progression from Substitute teaching to Full time teaching when you are ready.

Relocation to London:
Along with a secured contract Vision Teaching will assist you in your relocation to London. When you first contact us you will be given a one on one relocation consultant over the phone who is there with you every step of the way until you arrive in UK! Along with personable advice, you will expect:
* A competitive salary of £24,375 GBP per year / around $44,105 at the current exchange rate.
* Accommodation arranged and provided, including housemates if you are seeking shared.
* A UK welcome pack, which includes a UK bank account, a UK mobile phone with SIM Card, UK Travel card and Vision Teaching goodies!
* Step by step guidance on how to apply for your Visa
* A friendly community with other Vision teachers, including social events and day trips and liaise with our current international supply teachers before arrival to share their experiences.
* Request to speak with Vision Teaching's current overseas Guaranteed Supply Teacher.

If you feel the Guaranteed Supply Scheme is not for you, we do offer opportunities for a Guaranteed Long Time Contract with a school before you arrive to the UK. Full time teaching contracts are available in 2015 and 2016; however we recruit for our substitute teaching contract throughout the year. If you would be interested in hearing more please contact us on ukjobs@visionteaching.co.uk or through our website http://www.visionteaching.co.uk

If this sounds like something you're interested in, would like to arrange a meeting whilst we're in Australia or just want some more information email us a copy of your CV and a contact number to ukjobs@visionteaching.co.uk or apply through our website: https://www.visionteaching.co.uk

Applications close 28 March 2015

Minimum requirements for this role;
* Bachelor of Education / Graduate Diploma in Education
* Current police clearance
* Two teaching based references

You know you’re ready for early leadership. From building relationships to addressing business challenges, you have the drive and determination to start achieving now. The catch is most graduate programs will expose you to interesting situations and people, but will only trust you with limited responsibilities.

At Woolworths, we believe that leadership is born from personal confidence. That it’s your failures as well as your successes that will shape you into an effective leader. It’s why our graduates enjoy significant and meaningful management responsibilities, along with executive guidance.

And when we say significant responsibility, we mean it. Few organisations in Australia can match the size and variety of professional opportunities that Woolworths offers. As one of the country’s largest and most complex organisations (with 200,000 employees and market capitalisation of $50 billion), we can provide amazing leadership development experiences for you – both as a graduate and throughout your career.

The challenges are on a massive scale, which might seem a bit intimidating. We are performance focused and we work hard, but we work as a team. So you will be supported by colleagues and managers who genuinely want you to succeed. Be a leader today, not someday. On the Woolworths Graduate Program.

Lead in one of our 13 graduate streams:

- Business Leadership
- Business Consulting
- Finance
- Marketing
- Digital e-Commerce
- Big Data
- HR
- IT
- Product Development & Quality Assurance
- Logistics
- Procurement
- Property
- Legal

All of the programs provide you with:

- A permanent ongoing contract with a clear career path beyond the graduate program
- A structured graduate program with mapped rotations and learning outcomes
- A mentor who will be there to support you throughout the graduate program with career advice, assistance and guidance
- A graduate buddy who will be there to assist you with the transition into the program and help you settle into the organisation
- A competitive remuneration package

Key attributes we are looking for:

- Ambitious and keen to succeed
- Passionate about retail and customers
- A desire to work in a fast paced and innovative environment
- A collaborative work style
- Disciplined and driven to achieve results

Pre-requisites:

- In your final year of study or have recently completed an undergraduate degree (within 2 years)
- Demonstrated work experience, retail preferred but not essential
- Hold a current credit average
- You have the flexibility to work full time from the program start date, February 2016
- You are a Permanent Resident or Australian / NZ citizen as at date of application
- Willing to relocate to Sydney if currently living interstate/international

Dare to Lead and apply now!

Applications close 29th March 2015 with the Graduate Program commencing in February 2016.
