Field Schools and Intensives 2014

The Department of Archaeology at Flinders University regularly offers a range of field schools and other intensive topics in locations around Australia.

Anyone can attend a field school or intensive as a short course participant (costs and fees apply).

ARCH8152 Maritime Archaeology Field School
(2-16 February) – Phillip Island, Victoria.

ARCH3308 Historical Archaeology Field School
(14-17 April) – Adelaide, SA.

ARCH8803 Indigenous Archaeology Field School
(21-27 April) – Ngadjuri Country, SA.

ARCH8810 Community Archaeology Field School
(22-28 June) – Barunga, NT.
ARCH8811 Rock Art Field School
(7-13 July) – Barunga, NT.

ARCH8159 Maritime Archaeology Field Practicum
(14-18 July) – Location TBA.

ARCH8158: Ships: Research, Recording and Reconstruction
(22-28 September) – Adelaide, SA.

ARCH8405: The Archaeology of Australian Stone Artefacts
(22 September-5 October) – Adelaide, SA.

ARCH8408 Human Osteology
(10-14 November) – Adelaide, SA.

ARCH8801 Archaeological Field Methods
(17-29 November) – Adelaide, SA.

ARCH8156 Advanced Maritime Archaeology Fieldwork Practicum
(17-29 November) – Location TBA.

For more details, see our website:
http://www.flinders.edu.au/ehl/archaeology/fieldwork/field-schools/field-schools_home.cfm