The Creative Portfolio
Candidates will submit a Portfolio of writing in one or more genres (i.e. fiction, non-fiction, poetry, etc.) of no fewer than five and no more than twenty pages.

The submission is to be typed and double-spaced on A4 paper, using one side of the page only. Each sheet to be numbered. The Portfolio is to be submitted in a folder or binder that allows pages to be turned individually.

Candidates are to read and sign a declaration cover sheet stating that the work is their own (i.e. wholly original).

The Portfolio will indicate a candidate’s current skill level, which will bear on their likelihood of success in the degree.

The Statement
Candidates must also submit a Statement of not more than one page (approximately 250-300 words) that explains their reasons for wanting to study for a Bachelor of Creative Arts (Creative Writing).

The Statement will indicate an applicant’s preparedness for this type of study.

The Statement should be inserted at the beginning of the Portfolio. It should be typed and double-spaced.

If candidates have had any work published or have performed (or had performed by others) any of their work, they should incorporate this information into their Statement.

In the case of those with extensive publications and/or other specialised or professional training, a Curriculum Vitae can also be included as a separate sheet or sheets in the Portfolio. The Statement and Curriculum Vitae will not be counted as part of the creative submission, which will still number between five and twenty pages.

Curriculum Vitae
Applicants should also submit a current Curriculum Vitae.

Discussion of the reasons for acceptance or non-acceptance in to the Bachelor of Creative Arts (Creative Writing) will not be entered into.
