

History Seminar Series Semester 2, 2020

Venue: Room SSS 149, Flinders University, Bedford Park

Time: 11.15-12.30, Friday

July 31	Alessandro Antonello	"Antarctic krill and global oceanic resources: a history of promise, abundance, benefit and waste, 1930s-1970s"
August 7	Gillian Dooley	"Jane Austen and the Music of the French Revolution"
August 14	Jade Hastings	'WANTED...Female Servant of Good Character': Highlighting Power Imbalances Between Female Domestic Servants and their Employers in South Australian Courts, 1836-1880
August 21	Valerie Munt	"In a Zeitnot - Frederick Rose and Soviet ethnography during the Cold War: A micro-history."
August 28	Penny Edmonds	The case of Nie's refusal: gender, law and consent in the trans-Pacific frontier
September 11	Kate Fullager (Online)	Three Lives in an Age of Empire: Exploring Pacific and Atlantic Worlds during the eighteenth century
October 16	Andrekos Varnava	'British and Australian Border Control and Cypriot Immigration, 1920s-1950s'.
October 23	Dr Karen Agutter	"Scheme Youth": Writing the History of Unaccompanied Displaced Teenagers in post-WWII Australia
October 30	James Kane	A pair of yellow crosses: implementing and resisting punishments for heresy in thirteenth-century Occitania
November 7	Jane Haggis & Margaret Allan	TBA

According to present information up to 45 people are allowed to attend in room 149. Please observe social distancing. If you would like to attend online, send an email to Christine.Winter@flinders.edu.au.