

FULBRIGHT DON DEBATS DISTINGUISHED CHAIR IN POLITICS AND PUBLIC POLICY

Research, live, and work for five months at one of Australia's foremost institutions of higher learning.

The Fulbright Don DeBats Distinguished Chair in Politics and Public Policy (funded by Flinders University) is designed to attract full or associate U.S. professors with distinguished academic careers and significant publication and teaching records, to conduct collaborative research at Flinders University, housed within the Jeff Bleich Centre for Democracy and Disruptive Technologies (JBC).

Specialisation

The University is looking for research that relates to one or more of the three areas of focus of the Jeff Bleich Centre:

- Democracy, Participation, and Human Rights
- Defence, Security, and Space
- Artificial Intelligence, Social Media, and Disruptive Technologies.

Scholarship Entitlements

- A monthly stipend and accommodation allowance for 4-5 months
- International travel entitlements
- Travel allowance for an Australian lecture tour
- Eligibility to apply for coverage under Australian Medicare
- A limited Accident and Sickness Program for Exchanges (ASPE) Health Benefits Plan.
- Support from the Fulbright Commission to assist with administration, visas and general enquiries.
- Dependents of scholars who will be enrolled in the Australian public school system in grades K-12 may have tuition fees waived.
- Orientation and networking opportunities.
- Support from the Commission prior to and during program.

APPLY FOR 2027

Deadline: September 15, 2025

ONLINE? CLICK HERE

Have a question?
Email jbc@flinders.edu.au

