2023 DOCTORS FOR THE NT PHOTOGRAPHY COMPETITION

“BEYOND THE STETHOSCOPE, THROUGH OUR LENS”

Competition Guidelines

Aim

Doctors for the NT are running an inaugural photography competition. This year’s theme is “Beyond the Stethoscope, Through Our Lens”. We want you to showcase how you live, train and work in rural and remote NT. We are looking for photographic images and short videos that are going to inspire the medical clinicians to work in the Northern Territory.

Who are Doctors for the NT?

Doctors for the NT is a campaign driven by the NT Medical Training and Workforce Collaboration, a network of contributors from medical school, pre-vocational and specialist training, health service employment and workforce planning organisations. Our aim is to enhance the promotion of the Northern Territory as the place to live, train and work as a doctor including rurally based training in general practice and hospital specialties.

Stakeholders include Australian College of Rural and Remote Medicine, Royal Australian College of General Practitioners, Northern Territory Primary Health Network, Northern Territory Rural Generalist Coordination Unit/ NT Health, and the NT Regional Training Hub.
