

Position Description – Lecturer in Critical Indigenous Studies (Identified)

Updated 4 September 2026

POSITION DETAILS

College	College of Human Science and Culture
Organisational Unit	Critical Indigenous Studies
Supervisor	Dean, People and Resources (or Delegate)
Classification	Teaching Specialist (Academic) Level B
Employment Type	Continuing, full-time

POSITION SUMMARY

This Teaching Specialist (Academic) position, with its primary focus on teaching and teaching-related activities and has an important role to play in the University's achievement of its strategic plan, Agenda 2035: Impact. With Purpose.

The University is committed to a student-centred ethos and to developing creative, enterprising, career-ready graduates prepared to become lifelong contributors to society. In accordance with the strategic plan, the University seeks to:

- deliver a richly interactive and personalised approach to learning focussed on student success;
- be an international leader in educational innovation, advanced learning technologies and learning analytics; and
- develop enterprising graduates equipped with the skills required for success in the knowledge economy.

The Lecturer in Critical Indigenous Studies (Identified) will contribute to excellence in teaching and learning across undergraduate and postgraduate Critical Indigenous Studies topics and related programs. The position is responsible for making an independent contribution to teaching and the scholarship of teaching through the innovative use of evidence-informed pedagogies, educational technologies and culturally responsive teaching practices that enhance student engagement, success and belonging.

Teaching may include areas such as Indigenous knowledges, histories, cultures, pedagogies, contemporary issues affecting Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples and communities, and critical engagement with Indigenous perspectives in education and society. The successful candidate will contribute to curriculum development, renewal and innovation, including the integration of Indigenous knowledges, perspectives and methodologies across teaching, learning and assessment.

The position provides opportunities to contribute to innovative curriculum design, Scholarship of Teaching and Learning initiatives, interdisciplinary collaboration, and the University's commitment to advancing Indigenous excellence, self-determination and meaningful engagement with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities.

UNIVERSITY EXPECTATIONS AND VALUES

All staff at Flinders are responsible for understanding their obligations and responsibilities as set out in the University's code of conduct and are expected to:

- demonstrate commitment to the University's values of Integrity, Courage, Innovation, Excellence and the underlying ethos of being Student Centred;
- contribute to the efficient and effective functioning of the team or work unit in order to meet the University's objectives. This includes demonstrating appropriate and professional workplace behaviours, providing

Changing 10 Million Lives.
Every One Matters.

Agenda 2035

assistance to team members if required and undertaking other key responsibilities or activities as directed by one's supervisor;

- promote and support an inclusive workplace culture which values diversity and embraces the principles of equal opportunity;
- perform their responsibilities in a manner which reflects and responds to continuous improvement; and
- familiarise themselves and comply with the University's Work Health and Safety, Injury Management and Equal Opportunity policies.

Flinders University is committed to providing a safe, respectful and inclusive environment, free from gender-based violence. Appointment to this role is conditional on the completion of required pre-employment checks and declarations, each of which must be satisfactory to the University. This includes a Gender-Based Violence declaration, in accordance with the National Higher Education Code to Prevent and Respond to Gender-Based Violence (2025), and a Nationally Coordinated Criminal History Check.

In addition, it is a requirement of this position that the incumbent maintain a current Working With Children Check which is satisfactory to the University in accordance with the Child Safety (Prohibited Persons) Act 2016 (SA).

The filling of this position is intended to constitute a special/equal opportunity measure under section 8(1) of the Racial Discrimination Act 1975 (Cth) and s65 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1984 (SA). This position is therefore only open to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people. The successful candidate will be required to provide Confirmation of Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander descent.

KEY POSITION RESPONSIBILITIES

This position is predominantly concerned with teaching and teaching-related duties involving the creation, delivery and continuous quality improvement of university-level education. It includes (but is not limited to): direct teaching informed by approaches that enhance the student experience; curriculum design and review; delivery innovation; advancements in education technologies; and making an independent contribution to maintaining internal and external compliance and accreditation of courses. The position is also expected to make an independent contribution to high-quality university, professional and community service. The position does not include making a research contribution.

Teaching:

- Create, coordinate and conduct inspiring teaching informed by approaches that enhance the student experience, with a focus on Critical Indigenous Studies topics, across all levels and modes, of the College.
- Contribute to the planning and evaluation of these topics, undertaking the role of Topic Coordinator as required.
- Make an independent contribution to the review, renewal, development and design of curricula and courses that are attractive to existing and new cohorts of students and that nurture creativity and critical-thinking skills.
- Provide support, academic counselling and professional advice to students concerning their studies, professional development and career opportunities.
- Make effective use of innovations and technologies in teaching practice.

University, Professional and Service:

- Participate in the College's administrative activities such as membership of committees and working groups and attendance at College meetings.
- Maintain professional knowledge relevant to teaching within their discipline through scholarship and professional development.
- Engage in activities within a relevant external professional domain such as professional associations, conferences and workshops, and within a wider community context at local, national or international level.
- Provide high quality contribution to community service on behalf of the College and University.
- Undertake activities that promote the development of productive partnerships to provide opportunities for students and promote graduate employability.

Changing 10 Million Lives.
Every One Matters.

Agenda 2035

- Any other responsibilities in line with the level of the position as assigned by the Supervisor and/or the University.

KEY POSITION CAPABILITIES

- Completion of a PhD or EdD, or equivalent qualification.
- Experience of significant teaching and learning experience and excellence at a tertiary level.
- Evidence of use of learning and teaching approaches which enhance student success.
- Evidence of successful and independent innovation in learning and teaching delivery or design, including use of e-learning technologies.
- Evidence of professional development of teaching including peer or supervisor reviews of teaching and/or external accreditation processes.
- Demonstrated contribution to academic quality assurance processes, such as topic or course reviews.
- Demonstrated understanding of the nexus between teaching and learning, research and scholarship.
- Experience in coordinating and/or leading the teaching activities of other staff.
- Evidence of student-centred approach.
- Good understanding of appropriate assessment techniques – including feedback.
- Demonstrated experience or capability to engage with students (and deliver teaching modules) via online learning platforms.
- Demonstrated excellent oral and written communication skills and interpersonal skills, including the demonstrated ability to establish effective relationships with staff, students and industry.
- Experience with engagement within a relevant external professional domain and within a wider community context at local, national or international level which could include working parties, committees, professional associations and conferenced workshops.
- Demonstrated experience in teaching Critical Indigenous Studies, Indigenous Education, or a related discipline within higher education (Desired).
- Experience in curriculum design, review or development that incorporates Indigenous knowledges, perspectives and methodologies (Desired).
- Established relationships and engagement with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, organisations, professional networks or stakeholders (Desired).