Position Description – Lecturer in Entry Pathways (Medicine)

Updated 26 October 2026

POSITION DETAILS
College	College of Medicine and Public Health
Organisational Unit	Rural and Remote Health
Supervisor	Dean, Rural and Remote Heath (or Delegate)
Classification	Teaching Specialist (Academic) Level B
Employment Type	Fixed-term, full-time

POSITION SUMMARY

This Teaching Specialist (Academic) position, with its primary focus on teaching and teaching-related activities, has an important role to play in the University's achievement of its strategic plan, Agenda 2035: Impact. With Purpose.

The University is committed to a student-centred ethos and to developing creative, enterprising, career-ready graduates prepared to become lifelong contributors to society. In accordance with the strategic plan, the University seeks to:

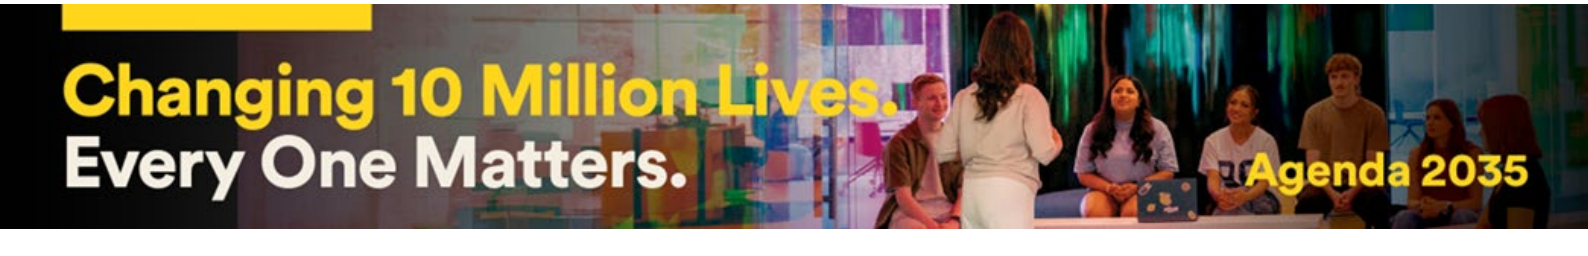

- deliver a richly interactive and personalised approach to learning focussed on student success;
- be an international leader in educational innovation, advanced learning technologies and learning analytics; and
- develop enterprising graduates equipped with the skills required for success in the knowledge economy.

The Teaching Specialist will contribute to excellence in teaching and learning through the development, coordination and delivery of the Indigenous Entry Stream and Rural Origin Pathway that allows students an alternative entry into the Flinders Medical Program. The position will develop and deliver student-centred foundational science education, supporting students to build the knowledge and academic skills required for successful entry into and progression through the Flinders Medical Program. Teaching will encompass foundational areas including scientific knowledge, mathematics, chemistry, biochemistry, cell biology, genetics, anatomy and physiology, body systems and homeostasis.

The position will make an independent contribution to curriculum development, teaching innovation, student support and continuous improvement across both pathways, using contemporary teaching practices and technologies to deliver excellence in teaching and enhance student engagement and success.

The position can be based at any of the campuses in South Australia or the Northern Territory.

FINAL

UNIVERSITY EXPECTATIONS AND VALUES

All staff at Flinders are responsible for understanding their obligations and responsibilities as set out in the University's code of conduct and are expected to:

- demonstrate commitment to the University's values of Integrity, Courage, Innovation, Excellence
- demonstrate consistent alignment with the University's strategic priorities through daily decisions, teamwork and behaviours that reinforce the strategic intent; contribute to the efficient and effective functioning of the team or work unit in order to meet the University's objectives. This includes demonstrating appropriate and professional workplace behaviours, providing assistance to team members if required and undertaking other key responsibilities or activities as directed by one's supervisor;
- promote and support an inclusive workplace culture which values diversity and embraces the principles of equal opportunity;
- perform their responsibilities in a manner which reflects and responds to continuous improvement; and
- familiarise themselves and comply with the University's Work Health and Safety, Injury Management and Equal Opportunity policies.

Flinders University is committed to providing a safe, respectful and inclusive environment, free from gender-based violence. Appointment to this role is conditional on the completion of required pre-employment checks and declarations, each of which must be satisfactory to the University. This includes a Gender-Based Violence declaration, in accordance with the National Higher Education Code to Prevent and Respond to Gender-Based Violence (2025), and a Nationally Coordinated Criminal History Check.

For SA based position

In addition, it is a requirement of this position that the incumbent maintain a current Working With Children Check which is satisfactory to the University in accordance with the Child Safety (Prohibited Persons) Act 2016 (SA).

Staff working in a health care setting are strongly recommended to be fully vaccinated against COVID-19 in line with the SA Health policy.

For NT based position

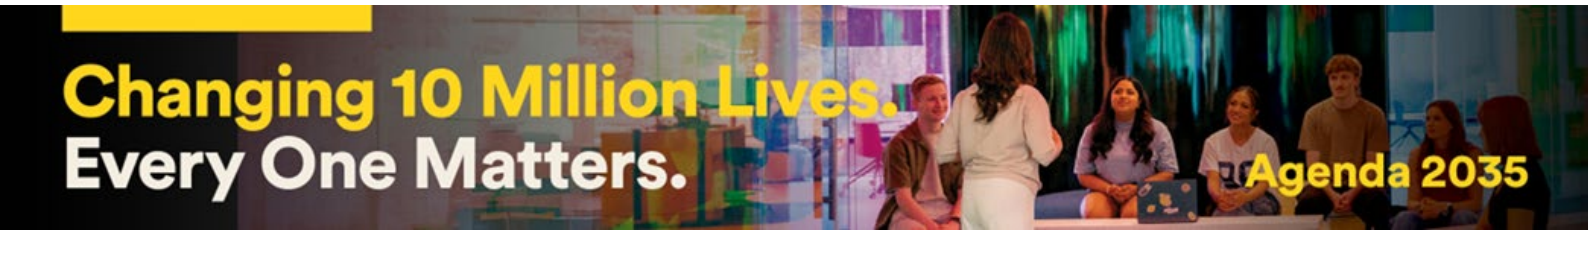

Northern Territory Government legislation (the Care and Protection of Children Act 2007) now requires all individuals in child related employment or whose duties involve, or are likely to involve, contact with a child, to hold a valid 'Working with Children Clearance' (Ochre Card). This position involves child related work and is assessed as requiring a Working with Children Clearance/Ochre Card.

Staff working in a health care setting are required to be fully vaccinated against COVID in line with the NT Health policy.

KEY POSITION RESPONSIBILITIES

This position is predominantly concerned with teaching and teaching-related duties involving the creation, delivery and continuous quality improvement of university-level education. It includes (but is not limited to): direct teaching informed by approaches that enhance the student experience; curriculum design and review; delivery innovation; advancements in education technologies; and making an independent contribution to maintaining internal and external compliance and accreditation of courses. The position is also expected to make an independent contribution to high-quality university, professional and community service. The position does not include making a research contribution.

FINAL

Teaching:

- Create, coordinate and conduct inspiring teaching informed by approaches that enhance the student experience, with a focus on foundational science-based topics, for pathway entry to the MD program
- Contribute to the planning and evaluation of these topics and undertaking the role of Topic Coordinator
- Make an independent contribution to the review, renewal, development and design of curricula and courses that are attractive to existing and new cohorts of students and that nurture creativity and critical-thinking skills.
- Provide support, academic counselling and professional advice to students concerning their studies, professional development and career opportunities.
- Make effective use of innovations and technologies in teaching practice.

University, Professional and Service:

- Participate in the College's administrative activities such as membership of committees and working groups and attendance at College meetings.
- Maintain professional knowledge relevant to teaching within their discipline through scholarship and professional development.
- Engage in activities within a relevant external professional domain such as professional associations, conferences and workshops, and within a wider community context at local, national or international level.
- Provide high quality contribution to community service on behalf of the College and University.
- Undertake activities that promote the development of productive partnerships to provide opportunities for students and promote graduate employability.
- Any other responsibilities in line with the level of the position as assigned by the Supervisor and/or the University.

FINAL

Flinders University

KEY POSITION CAPABILITIES

- Completion of a Doctorate, or equivalent qualification in foundation science.
- Experience of significant teaching and learning experience and excellence at a tertiary level.
- Evidence of use of learning and teaching approaches which enhance student success.
- Evidence of successful and independent innovation in learning and teaching delivery or design, including use of e-learning technologies.
- Evidence of professional development of teaching including peer or supervisor reviews of teaching and/or external accreditation processes.
- Demonstrated contribution to academic quality assurance processes, such as topic or course reviews.
- Demonstrated understanding of the nexus between teaching and learning, research and scholarship.
- Experience in coordinating and/or leading the teaching activities of other staff.
- Evidence of student-centred approach.
- Good understanding of appropriate assessment techniques – including feedback.
- Demonstrated experience or capability to engage with students (and deliver teaching modules) via online learning platforms.
- Demonstrated excellent oral and written communication skills and interpersonal skills, including the demonstrated ability to establish effective relationships with staff, students and industry.
- Experience with engagement within a relevant external professional domain and within a wider community context at local, national or international level which could include working parties, committees, professional associations and conferenced workshops.
- Tertiary qualifications in Education (Desirable).

FINAL

