

Position Description – Professor

Updated 20 May 2026

POSITION DETAILS
College/Portfolio	College of Health and Enablement
Organisational Unit	Health Sciences
Supervisor (Title)	Dean, People and Resources (or Delegate)
Classification	Academic Teaching & Research (Balanced) Level E
Employment Type	Continuing, Full-Time

POSITION SUMMARY
The Professor will, under broad supervision, provide academic leadership in research, teaching and community engagement in the discipline of Health Sciences, with a strong focus on Digital Health. The position will provide outstanding leadership in the study of Health Sciences. The incumbent will have a track record of grants, either Category 1 or others. The Caring Futures Institute was established in 2019 and is Australia's first fully dedicated research centre for the study of self-care and caring solutions leading to better lives, better communities, better care and better systems. The Caring Futures Institute is closely connected with community, consumers and carers, working closely with not for profit and private care sectors, government, and health and community services. Adopting a knowledge translation approach, the institute brings together researchers, consumers, and users of health and community systems to co-design solutions, using innovative methodologies, technology, health and social care economics, and disruptive solutions to have impact. The Professor will be able and willing to take a strong leadership role with Early Career Researchers and Middle Career Researchers. The Professor will advance the College in its reputation as a centre of excellence in education and research, both nationally and internationally, and advance the development of the discipline of Health Sciences.

Changing 10 Million Lives.
Every One Matters.

Agenda 2035

UNIVERSITY EXPECTATIONS AND VALUES

All staff at Flinders are responsible for understanding their obligations and responsibilities as set out in the University's code of conduct and are expected to:

- demonstrate commitment to the University's values of Integrity, Courage, Innovation and Excellence
- demonstrate consistent alignment with the University's strategic priorities through daily decisions, teamwork and behaviours that reinforce the strategic intent.
- contribute to the efficient and effective functioning of the team or work unit to meet the University's objectives. This includes demonstrating appropriate and professional workplace behaviours, providing assistance to team members, if required, and undertaking other key responsibilities or activities as directed by one's supervisor;
- promote and support an inclusive workplace culture which values diversity and embraces the principles of equal opportunity;
- perform their responsibilities in a manner which reflects and responds to continuous improvement; and
- familiarise themselves and comply with the University's Work Health and Safety, Injury Management and Equal Opportunity policies.

Flinders University is committed to providing a safe, respectful and inclusive environment, free from gender-based violence. Appointment to this role is conditional on the completion of required pre-employment checks and declarations, each of which must be satisfactory to the University. This includes a Gender-Based Violence declaration, in accordance with the National Higher Education Code to Prevent and Respond to Gender-Based Violence (2025), and a Nationally Coordinated Criminal History Check.

KEY POSITION RESPONSIBILITIES

The Professor is accountable for:

- Providing outstanding teaching using contemporary pedagogy, a range of delivery methods, and innovative delivery methods in the area of Health Sciences.
- Publishing high quality publications in Health Sciences and associated areas recognised as such nationally and internationally.
- Gaining external competitive research grants and contributing to growth in Flinders' research income.
- Supervising to completion Flinders research students including doctoral students in Health Sciences and grow the PhD cohort.
- Mentoring more junior academic colleagues in the College, especially academic staff in Health Sciences, including co-publishing, co-supervision and co-submission of external competitive grants.
- Contributing to or leading research on designated College and/or University themes.
- Providing administrative leadership as required including the Health Science Teaching Program or the Research Section of Health Sciences.
- Contributing to administrative tasks as sought by the College leadership including play an active role in maintenance of academic standards and in the development of educational policy and curriculum within Health Sciences.
- Providing leadership and expertise to foster collaborative links across the University, with industry/community and with other institutions as appropriate.

Changing 10 Million Lives.
Every One Matters.

Agenda 2035

- Any other responsibilities in line with the level of the position as assigned by the Supervisor and/or the University.

KEY POSITION CAPABILITIES

- Completion of a PhD, or other relevant and equivalent qualification and/or experience.
- Hold and maintain a current membership with a relevant professional association.
- Demonstrated evidence of a distinguished and active track record of teaching expertise in a relevant occupation at tertiary level, including a leadership role in international delivery and /or collaboration
- Demonstrated evidence of innovation in teaching to support students in order to maximise their learning.
- Evidence of significant educational leadership relevant to teaching and learning in higher education and demonstrated experience leading innovation and inspiring excellence amongst colleagues.
- Significant experience in curriculum development and teaching methodology for topics and programs of study, including reviews and internal and external accreditation activities.
- Demonstrated experience with engaging and developing flexible methods to deliver teaching programs such as through e-learning platforms and other communications technologies
- A distinguished international reputation in research in an area aligned with the College's research strengths evidenced by sustained high quality publications and attraction of several competitive external grants.
- Demonstrated excellence in the supervision of honours and research higher degree students.
- Significant contribution to the discipline and/or profession within a relevant external professional domain and within a wider community context at local, national and international level.
- A demonstrated strong track record of establishing effective research collaborations with external national and international partners.
- Demonstrated excellent oral and written communication skills and interpersonal skills, including the demonstrated evidence of the ability to develop, establish and maintain effective relationships with staff, students and industry.
- Demonstrated evidence and excellence in Teaching and Research performance in areas associated with digital health (desirable).

Changing 10 Million Lives.
Every One Matters.

Agenda 2035

