

Position Description – Lecturer in Law

Updated 25 May 2026

POSITION DETAILS
College	College of Business, Creative Arts, Law, and Social Sciences
Organisational Unit	Law
Supervisor	Dean, People and Resources (or Delegate)
Classification	Teaching Specialist (Academic) Level B
Employment Type	Continuing, full-time

POSITION SUMMARY
This Teaching Specialist (Academic) position, with its primary focus on teaching and teaching-related activities, has an important role to play in the University's achievement of its strategic plan, Making a Difference: The 2025 Agenda. The University is committed to a student-centred ethos and to developing creative, enterprising, career-ready graduates prepared to become lifelong contributors to society. In accordance with the strategic plan, the University seeks to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • deliver a richly interactive and personalised approach to learning focused on student success; • be an international leader in educational innovation, advanced learning technologies and learning analytics; and • develop enterprising graduates equipped with the skills required for success in the knowledge economy. The Lecturer in Law will contribute to excellence in teaching and learning across the suite of Law topics in the College of Business, Creative Arts, Law and Social Sciences, with a focus on Evidence, Health Law, Dispute Resolution, Indigenous Peoples, Colonialism and the Law, and Human Service Law. The Lecturer in Law will be responsible for making an independent contribution to teaching and the scholarship of teaching using innovations in teaching practices and technologies to deliver excellence in teaching.

UNIVERSITY EXPECTATIONS AND VALUES
All staff at Flinders are responsible for understanding their obligations and responsibilities as set out in the University's code of conduct and are expected to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • demonstrate commitment to the University's values of Integrity, Courage, Innovation, Excellence and the underlying ethos of being Student Centred; • contribute to the efficient and effective functioning of the team or work unit in order to meet the University's objectives. This includes demonstrating appropriate and professional workplace behaviours, providing assistance to team members if required and undertaking other key responsibilities or activities as directed by one's supervisor; • promote and support an inclusive workplace culture which values diversity and embraces the principles of equal opportunity; • perform their responsibilities in a manner which reflects and responds to continuous improvement; and • familiarise themselves and comply with the University's Work Health and Safety, Injury Management and Equal Opportunity policies. A Nationally Coordinated Criminal History Check (NCCHC) which is satisfactory to the University will be required by Flinders University before the successful applicant can commence in this position.

Changing 10 Million Lives.
Every One Matters.

Agenda 2035

Flinders University is committed to providing a safe, respectful and inclusive environment, free from gender based violence. Appointment to this role is conditional on the completion of required pre employment checks and declarations, each of which must be satisfactory to the University. This includes a Gender Based Violence declaration, in accordance with the National Higher Education Code to Prevent and Respond to Gender Based Violence (2025), and a Nationally Coordinated Criminal History Check.

KEY POSITION RESPONSIBILITIES

This position is predominantly concerned with teaching and teaching-related duties involving the creation, delivery and continuous quality improvement of university-level education. It includes (but is not limited to): direct teaching informed by approaches that enhance the student experience; curriculum design and review; delivery innovation; advancements in education technologies; and making an independent contribution to maintaining internal and external compliance and accreditation of courses. The position is also expected to make an independent contribution to high-quality university, professional and community service. The position does not include making a research contribution.

Teaching:

- Create, coordinate and conduct inspiring teaching informed by approaches that enhance the student experience, with the focus on law topics across all levels and modes of the College.
- Teach and assess students' legal knowledge and practical legal skills.
- Contribute to the planning and evaluation of these topics, undertaking the role of Topic Coordinator as required.
- Make an independent contribution to the review, renewal, development and design of curricula and courses that are attractive to existing and new cohorts of students and that nurture creativity and critical-thinking skills.
- Provide support, academic counselling and professional advice to students concerning their studies, professional development and career opportunities.
- Make effective use of innovations and technologies in teaching practice and assessment.

University, Professional and Service:

- Participate in the College's administrative activities such as membership of committees and working groups and attendance at College meetings.
- Maintain professional knowledge relevant to teaching within their discipline through scholarship and professional development.
- Engage in activities within a relevant external professional domain such as professional associations, conferences and workshops, and within a wider community context at local, national or international level.
- Provide high quality contribution to community service on behalf of the College and University.
- Undertake activities that promote the development of productive partnerships to provide opportunities for students and promote graduate employability.
- Any other responsibilities in line with the level of the position as assigned by the Supervisor and/or the University.

KEY POSITION CAPABILITIES

- Completion of a PhD or EdD, or equivalent qualification in Law.
- Experience of significant teaching and learning experience and excellence at a tertiary level.
- Evidence of use of learning and teaching approaches which enhance student success.
- Evidence of teaching and assessing practical legal skills.
- Evidence of successful and independent innovation in learning and teaching delivery or design, including use of e-learning technologies.
- Evidence of professional development of teaching including peer or supervisor reviews of teaching and/or external accreditation processes.
- Demonstrated contribution to academic quality assurance processes, such as topic or course reviews.
- Demonstrated understanding of the nexus between teaching and learning, research and scholarship.
- Experience in coordinating and/or leading the teaching activities of other staff.
- Evidence of student-centred approach.
- Good understanding of appropriate assessment techniques – including feedback and use of online assessment practices.
- Demonstrated experience or capability to engage with students (and deliver teaching modules) via online learning platforms.
- Demonstrated excellent oral and written communication skills and interpersonal skills, including the demonstrated ability to establish effective relationships with staff, students and industry.
- Experience with engagement within a relevant external professional domain and within a wider community context at local, national or international level which could include working parties, committees, professional associations and conferenced workshops.