POSITION DETAILS
College	College of Business, Creative Arts, Law and Social Sciences
Organisational Unit	Criminology
Supervisor	Matthew Flinders Professor, Criminology
Classification	Research (Academic) Level A
Employment Type	Fixed-term, full-time

POSITION SUMMARY
The Research Associate in Criminology will undertake a program of post-doctoral study for the Australian Research Council funded Industry Laureate grant 'Breaking the Prison-Reoffending Cycle: A Desistance From Crime Approach' (IL240100059) to help achieve key project outcomes. The overall aim of the Industry Laureate is to further develop, test, refine and embed a strengths-based assisted desistance approach to prisoner/offender rehabilitation in all NSW public prisons. The Research Associate will engage in basic as well as strategic-applied research to primarily successfully oversee: 1) a large-scale tracking study of ex-prisoners and the impact of prison environments on desistance from crime, and 2) a study of the conditions and processes which support and/or impede the timely progression of inmates through their custodial sentence. The successful applicant will contribute to the supervision of two PhD students attached to the Industry Laureate. It is envisaged that the incumbent may reside in NSW to maximise proximity to relevant fieldwork—although this is not a requirement. The Research Associate will report directly to the Industry Laureate Chief Investigator and work closely with other members of the Industry Laureate team including the other Research Associate, the Research Officer, and the four PhD students funded by the Industry Laureate. The Research Associate will also be expected to liaise closely with staff and inmates of Corrective Services New South Wales for the duration of the position.
