

STUDY HONOURS WITH THE JBC

We are offering students a $1000 bursary to undertake their honours with the Jeff Bleich Centre!

The Jeff Bleich Centre (JBC) is seeking to attract a new intake of honours students. We are seeking bright and capable undergraduate students wishing to extend their studies through their honours program.

We are offering students a $1000 bursary to undertake their honours with the JBC, and undertake research that broadly meets the goals of the JBC.

The JBC has three main areas of focus:

- Democracy, Participation, and Human Rights
- Artificial Intelligence, Social Media, and Disruptive Technologies
- Defence, Security, and Space

APPLY NOW

Your application must include:

- An abstract describing your proposed research and its fit with a JBC theme
- A copy of their CV
- A provisional written agreement from a JBC member that they are willing to supervise the Honours thesis

This is a competitive process and two honours bursaries will be offered each year. If successful, the funds will be released after the census date during the first semester of study.
