

Background

The Dean Jaensch Scholarship was established in 2010 to encourage students to study an Honours program in Politics and Public Policy.

Benefits

Subject to availability of funds, one new scholarship will be available each year to the value of $1000.

The scholarship will be funded by the College of Government, Business and Law.

Eligibility

Applicants for the scholarship must:

- have studied their undergraduate degree at Flinders University and;
- be commencing an Honours Program within Politics and Public Policy; and
- normally remain enrolled full-time.

Tenure

Recipients will receive $1000 for one year, to be paid in equal instalments, after the census date of each semester subject to maintaining satisfactory academic progress. The scholarship will be terminated if the recipient does not maintain enrolment, withdraws or is precluded from the course.

Selection

Selection will be made by representatives of the College of Government, Business and Law. The scholarship will be awarded on the basis of academic merit. If applicants have equal academic merit, the student with the highest GPA in a Politics Major will be awarded the scholarship.

Applications

Applications should be submitted online through the Flinders University Student System by the specified closing date.

Advertising

The scholarship will be advertised on the University website and other appropriate media as determined by Flinders University.
