

The University has established the Flinders University Student Access Scholarships to provide financial support students from low SES backgrounds who are commencing their first year of undergraduate study at Flinders University.

Subject to the availability of funds, scholarships will be available for the first year of study at Flinders University and will be worth $5,000.

Eligibility

All Scholarship applicants must be:

- Australian citizens; and
- commencing the first year of study in their first undergraduate degree at Flinders University; and
- normally enrolled full-time at Flinders University*; and
- eligible for, or in receipt of, a Commonwealth Income Support payment; or
- be able to demonstrate financial hardship; and
- seeking, or have gained, admission to their course on the basis of their ATAR, Indigenous Admissions Scheme, VET qualification, Foundation Studies, Special Tertiary Admissions Test (STAT) or Work and Life Experience/Special Entry.

* Applications will be accepted from part-time students who have extenuating circumstances that prevent them from studying full-time (e.g. disabilities, carer responsibilities). Part-time recipients will be paid pro-rata.

Tenure

The scholarship will be paid in two equal instalments, after the census date of each semester.

Selection

Eligible scholarship applicants will be ranked in accordance with their entry score relevant to their pathway to Flinders.

Scholarships will be awarded within each of the entry pathways.

Applications

Applications should be submitted online through the Flinders University Student System by the specified closing date.

Advertising

The availability of the scholarship will be described on the University website.