

College of Science and Engineering Summer Research Award Application Form for Non-Flinders University Students

THIS APPLICATION FORM IS FOR NON-FLINDERS STUDENTS ONLY
(Current Flinders students must apply via the Student Admin System).

The College of Science and Engineering has established the Summer Research Awards to provide opportunities for students interested in experiencing research.

The award will provide students with an opportunity to gain an insight into research by participating in a research project under the supervision of a member of staff. As a part of the award, the student will gain valuable hands-on experience in the planning, conduct and analysis of research in their chosen field. The award is solely for educational purposes and not intended to be an employment relationship.

The College will grant a minimum of four student awards of up to $1,500 for an approximately four-to-six-week research project held between December 2023 and February 2024. The award payment will be paid in a single lump sum payment in January 2024 unless otherwise stated.

Eligibility

Applicants must:

- Generally, be a current student at an Australian university and in the 2nd or 3rd year of their undergraduate degree, or the equivalent.
- Intend to enrol the next year at an Australian university.
- Have, by December of the current year, completed between 54-90 units of a relevant undergraduate degree, or the equivalent.
- Be available for a placement of a minimum of four-to-six weeks between December and February.
- Not previously been awarded a CSE Summer Research Award or Scholarship.

Selection

Awards will be awarded based on:

- Progress in relevant degree (Flinders equivalent units) by December of the current year (calculation of units to include any credit transfers and does not include Honours units).
 - 54 - 72 units - rank one
 - 73 - 90 units - rank two
- GPA of topics completed towards undergraduate study, not including current semester 2 results.
- A personal statement, of no more than 300 words, detailing the applicant's suitability for the award.
