

Deane O Southgate Scholarship

Purpose

This scholarship is named in honour of Associate Professor Deane Oakford Southgate AM FRACGP, FACOM, who was the Head of the Department of Primary Care and Community Medicine in the Flinders University School of Medicine until his death in 1991. This scholarship was established to support students who have an interest in pursuing a career in general practice. The value of the scholarship is $5,000 and one scholarship will be available per annum as long as funding permits.

Eligibility

Applicants must:

- be enrolled in the fourth year of the Doctor of Medicine Program at Flinders University; and
- be a permanent resident of South Australia; and
- be able to demonstrate a genuine interest in pursuing a career in general practice

Tenure

The scholarship is valid for one year and will be paid in two equal instalments of $2,500 after the census date of each semester.

Leave

Leave will be permitted after completion of at least one semester of this scholarship, for a maximum of one semester only.

Selection

The scholarship will be awarded based on the demonstrated passion and commitment to pursuing a career in general practice.

Selection will be made by a committee within the College of Medicine and Public Health in conjunction with Student Finance and Scholarships

Applications

Applications should be submitted online through the Flinders University Student System by the specified closing date.

Advertising

The availability of the scholarship will be described on the University website.
