For international students, financial hardship is assessed on the basis of your the information provided in and with this form. This may be by demonstrating unusual or exceptional circumstances that were unforeseen, occurred recently, and impacted negatively on you and your family's financial circumstances or other information that shows financial need. You will need to supply the last 2 months of Australian bank statements. This must include all bank statements for accounts you/or people supporting you hold. Where bank statements show transfers in or out of other accounts you hold and statements for those accounts have not been submitted with your application, or where statements have been redacted, your application will be marked as incomplete.

Applications with incomplete documentation may not be considered.

Describe the financial hardship that you affects you or your family. If you require further space please attach a separate statement.

Documentation required:

2 months of unredacted Australian bank statements for all accounts you and/or the family supporting you hold.

An ATO Notice of Final Assessment for the last financial year and copies of recent payslips showing a Year To Date amount earned (if you are working in Australia).

Parent/s or partner's evidence of income (e.g. a copy of their ATO Notice of Final Assessment for the last financial year and a copy of their recent payslip showing the year to date amount earned) if applicable.
