

Flinders University Humanitarian Refugee Scholarship

Flinders University has established this scholarship to support students seeking refugee status in Australia. Three scholarships will be available per annum initially. The number of scholarships available in future years will be determined by available funding.

Eligibility

All scholarship applicants must meet the following criteria:

- currently hold an eligible temporary visa* and be applying for a permanent humanitarian visa; and
- have completed year 12 in South Australia in the year prior to commencing University study; and
- be commencing a three year undergraduate course at Flinders University; and
- normally be enrolled full-time at Flinders University in an undergraduate course; and
- be able to demonstrate financial support to cover the cost of living and study expenses (except for tuition fees).

*Eligible visa categories will be published on the scholarships website.

Benefits

The scholarship will cover the international tuition fees for the published duration of the degree. In exceptional circumstances the tuition costs of a single repeat topic enrolment may be paid. If the recipient is required to repeat additional topics, they will be liable for the cost international tuition fees.

Tenure

The scholarship is awarded for the published duration of the course up to a maximum of three years. The scholarship is not transferable to another degree. The scholarship will be terminated if the recipient no longer meets the eligibility criteria. If the recipient's visa status changes resulting in eligibility for a HELP loan, the scholarship will be terminated. Recipients must normally maintain a GPA of 4.0.

Selection

In selecting recipients, the following factors will be considered:

- academic merit based on the university entrance score
- the extent to which the study will enhance the applicant's career prospects
- the extent to which the study will enable the student to contribute to the community

Selection of the candidate(s) will be made by International Student Services in conjunction with Student Finance.

Applications

Applications should be submitted online through the Flinders University Student System by the specified closing date.

Advertising

The availability of the scholarship will be described on the University website.