

Matthew Flinders Scholarship - Domestic

Purpose

Scholarships will be awarded to assist students in financial hardship.

Source of funds

Scholarships will be funded by community donations. These monies and donations have been pooled in an account named the "Matthew Flinders Scholarship Fund" within the University's Karmel Endowment Fund.

Benefits

The scholarships are to be used to assist students in the continuation of studies at Flinders University. Each scholarship will consist of a single payment of $1,000.

The number of scholarships will be dependent on available funds.

Eligibility

Applicants for the scholarship must:

- be enrolled full-time at Flinders University*; and
- have completed a minimum of one-year full-time equivalent study towards their course (36 units or 1 EFTSL); and
- be an Australian Citizen, NZ Citizen, Australian Permanent Resident, or a Permanent Humanitarian visa holder, and
- be in receipt of a Commonwealth Income Support payment or be able to demonstrate equivalent financial hardship; and
- be facing difficult circumstances which are beyond your control, and that are increasing your financial hardship.

* Students enrolled part-time may be eligible, in exceptional circumstances. Exceptional circumstances include (but is not limited to) disability, illness or carer responsibilities.

Selection

The scholarship selection will be made based on financial need and academic merit.

Applications

Applications can be made online through the Flinders University Student Management System. Only complete applications submitted by the closing date will be considered.

Advertising

The scholarship will be advertised on the University website and other appropriate media as determined by Flinders University.
