1. Purpose

   a. Section 21(1) of the Flinders University Act 1966 provides the University with the power to confer degrees, diplomas and other academic awards.

   b. This policy together with the supporting procedures outlines the key principles, requirements and processes that will be applied by Flinders University in the conferral of academic awards and associated activities.

2. Scope

   a. This policy applies to:
      i. all students who are enrolled in or who have completed the requirements for a Flinders University degree, diploma, or other academic award (“academic awards”)
      ii. graduates of Flinders University, and
      iii. members of staff and the University community participating in graduation ceremonies.

   b. Academic awards established by the University are listed in the Register of Degrees, Diplomas and other Academic Awards.

   c. This policy and the supporting procedures operate in conjunction with the Handling a Matter under Statute 6.4: Student Conduct Policy and Procedures, Statute 7.8 – Surrender of Degrees and Diplomas, and Statute 7.12 – Academic Awards.

4. Policy statement

4.1. Eligibility to graduate

Subject to section 4.1.1, the Vice-Chancellor or delegate may confer the relevant academic award on students who have completed the following eligibility requirements, as certified in accordance with the Conferral of Awards and Graduation Procedures:

a. a coursework award student must complete the applicable requirements specified for the relevant academic award and any additional relevant external accreditation or registration requirements

b. a student who has not completed the requirements for the academic award in which they are enrolled, but has met the requirements for a different academic award, may be approved to graduate with an exit or alternative award

c. a higher degree by research student must complete the requirements for an academic award in accordance with the Higher Degree by Research Policy and HDR Examination Procedures.

4.1.1. Investigation pending

Any student who is subject to an investigation under Statute 6.4 – Student Conduct, the Student Academic Integrity Policy or the Research Integrity Policy is not eligible to graduate until a determination has been made in accordance with those policies.

4.2. Certification of academic award

To certify that the requirements of an academic award have been met and to recognise academic achievement, graduates will be provided with academic documents upon conferral, as specified in the Conferral of Awards and Graduation Procedures.

4.3. Graduation ceremonies

The University may, from time-to-time, hold ceremonies to celebrate the academic achievements of graduates. For clarity, attendance at a graduation ceremony is not a requirement for the effective and valid conferral of an academic award.
4.4. Rescission of academic awards

a. The Vice-Chancellor, or other authorised officer specified below, may rescind an academic award conferred by the University, including prior to the effective date of this policy, in the following circumstances:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Circumstance</th>
<th>Authorised Officer</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>i. The graduate engaged in fraud or dishonesty with respect to their admission to, or meeting the requirements for completion of, an academic award</td>
<td>Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Students)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ii. The University made an administrative error in conferring the academic award, or the recipient was otherwise not eligible for the award</td>
<td>Director, Student Administration Services</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>iii. The graduate is seeking approval to surrender an exit award in order to complete the applicable original award (applicable to undergraduate degrees only)</td>
<td>Dean (Education)</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

b. The processes for rescinding an academic award in these circumstances are specified in s.4.5 of the Conferral of Awards and Graduation Procedures.

4.5. Posthumous academic awards

Academic awards may be awarded posthumously in accordance with the processes specified in the Conferral of Awards and Graduation Procedures.

4.6. Honorary awards

a. Section 21(3) of the Flinders University Act 1966 (SA) provides the University with power to admit any person honoris causa to any degree.

b. Nominations for and approval of honorary awards will be conducted in accordance with the Honorary Awards Policy.

4.7. Verification and release of award information

Academic award information may be released in accordance with the Conferral of Awards and Graduation Procedures.

4.8. Post-nominals

The University will approve and publish a list of post-nominals for each academic award on the Register of Degrees, Diplomas and other Academic Awards.
5. Responsibilities and authorities
