Auditions and call-backs will be held at Flinders University, Bedford Park, South Australia in the Dance Studio of the Drama Centre from Tuesday 30 November to Monday 6 December 2021. Please note applicants will need to be available for the full week. Auditions are normally held at the beginning of the week with call-backs at the end of the week.

Auditionees must prepare TWO monologues for performance. It is strongly recommended that you choose from the monologues which will be provided when booking on your audition date.

What to expect at the audition:

- Flinders University is closely monitoring the COVID-19 situation and are aligning our actions with advice from the Australian Government to ensure your health and safety when participating in the audition.
- Applicants will participate in a group warm up.
- The group will then be divided into two. You will perform your first audition piece for your first group and members of one audition panel. You will then perform your piece a second time for the other audition panel.
- Some applicants will be invited to continue the audition process later in the day. At this point you will re-perform your second piece for the entire audition panel.
- Selected applicants will be invited to return for a call-back interview. This call-back interview is an opportunity for the audition panel to work with you in greater depth.

Health Requirements:

- Please be aware that the audition and course is extremely demanding both physically and vocally. You need to be in strong physical health, and we may ask for a medical certificate if there are any concerns during the audition process.

For more information, please email askflinders@flinders.edu.au.
