

Study at Flinders' new city campus

Where potential meets possibility

Top 3 things you need to know

1. Flinders at Festival Plaza is SA's first vertical campus

Located in the heart of the city next to Adelaide Railway Station, Flinders' vertical campus is the first of its kind in the state. Designed for flexibility, innovative study and adaptable learning, Flinders' new city campus fosters collaboration, and empowers student learning opportunities.

2. Our innovative curriculum will lead to student success

Flinders at Festival Plaza will have a cutting-edge curriculum designed to equip students with the skills and experience they need to thrive in their future careers. Gone are the traditional lecture theatres, replaced by vibrant collaborative areas to ignite students' curiosity, empower them to fearlessly share ideas, engage with dynamic industry leaders, and work on authentic case studies & projects.

3. Students can choose from a wide range of courses

Situated at the epicentre of Adelaide's most vibrant and connected cultural hub, and in close proximity with key industry institutions, students will be able to study a range of courses from Business, Law, Creative Industries, Health through to Psychology, Social Work and Sport. Students will apply their skills in an authentic workplace context, through placements, internships or projects.
