Choose your degree
Flinders University offers more than 60 creative arts, humanities and social sciences undergraduate degrees and majors. Follow your passions and take your first steps towards an amazing career.

Be taught by leaders
Flinders' creative arts, humanities and social sciences degrees are taught by teachers who are leaders in their fields. You’ll study with practising artists, renowned fieldwork experts, respected industry figures and researchers.

Gain real-world experience
Flinders’ Work Integrated Learning (WIL) enables you to gain work experience while you study. You’ll have the opportunity to gain real-world experience through placements, practicums, field studies and simulated workplace settings and assessment activities. Flinders aims to provide each and every student with access to a WIL opportunity during their studies.

Creative Arts, Humanities & Social Sciences
Flinders has close ties to leading industry partners. Your studies will give you the opportunity to work on real-world industry projects alongside major industry organisations.

"Deciding where to study when you leave secondary schooling is always an important decision. The Flinders University program at Adelaide College of the Arts not only offered variance, experimentation and open collaboration, but so much more. Dancing at Flinders University has given me widespread knowledge of contemporary dance, the opportunity to train and create alongside industry professionals, lecturers and teachers from the profession that are passionately involved in our growth and development and, most importantly, the constant opportunity to perform."

Alix Kuijpers
Bachelor of Creative Arts (Dance)

At Flinders, it’s all about your creative career

Flinders’ creative arts and media degrees are designed with your future career in mind. Our industry links go far beyond simple placements, and offer you the chance to work on real-world projects and gain the skills that employers are seeking, today and tomorrow. Our partnership with CDW Studios is one example, setting global benchmarks for education across a range of visual disciplines and producing graduates who are fully prepared to step into their creative fields.

“Flinders University/CDW Studios has offered a unique experience where our teachers are currently working industry professionals, so this means that they can give the students proper insight into what is required of them at a professional level. The teaching staff all care for the success of the students, and it is very apparent through how much they encourage and push the students. Through my study at Flinders University/CDW Studios, I have learnt a lot of the necessary fundamentals as well as current and emerging methods and techniques that are currently used in the professional VFX or game design industries.”

Philosophy deals with some of the big questions about the world, society and ourselves, and encourages thought and discussion by presenting a range of possible answers.

Politics
Politics encompasses how groups of people conduct and understand their public life together. Politics is the study of public life in Australia and the rest of the world.

Psychology
Psychology is the study of human behaviour and experience including how we learn, maintain personality and self-esteem, thinking processes and psychological problems.

Screen and media
Screen and media involves the study and analysis of a wide range of screen-based media including film, television, computer games and online media.

Sociology
Sociology studies the social institutions and processes of contemporary society, linking the way individuals form identities against the backdrop of society and the construction of culture.

Spanish
Spanish is one of the three most widely spoken languages in the world, one of six official languages of the UN and an important trading language in the Asia-Pacific.

Visual arts
Visual arts provides the technical, aesthetic and cultural skills to understand and work in the arts and cultural sectors and related fields.

Women’s and gender studies
Women’s and gender studies addresses the broad questions of gender in contemporary life and historically, in Australia and globally, and how to change gendered relations of power.

Minors
The following areas are available as minors only in the BA: information technology, international affairs, mathematics, sciences.

Arts and Science – In addition to choosing an arts major, the following science majors can also be taken:

Animal biology
The animal biology major involves the biology of animals, including their classification, molecular and chemical structures, evolution, physiology, ecology and biodiversity.

Aquatic biology
Aquatic biology involves the biology of marine and freshwater aquatic life from mammals, birds and reptiles to plants and algae.

Biochemistry and molecular biology
The biochemistry and molecular biology major explores the very building blocks of life: from chemical structures and bonding to proteins and DNA.

Chemistry
Chemistry affects almost everything we do or use; from drugs, antibiotics and anesthetics to polymers and plastics to synthetic fibres and batteries.

Cognitive science
Cognitive science is the scientific study of the mind and its processes in both humans and machines, including intelligence and behaviour, perception, language, memory, attention, reasoning and emotion.

Computer science
The computer science major provides you with a broad background in programming, databases, networks and computer systems, enabling you to develop technical expertise in computers and their application.

Ecology and evolutionary biology
The ecology and evolutionary biology major introduces you to the study of living animals, plants and fungi, how they interact, and their role in the complex ecology of life in communities.

Environmental geology
Environmental geology applies geology or geoscience to our living environment. The environmental geology major examines how geological processes and hazards influence human activities and vice versa.

Environmental hydrology and water resources
The environmental hydrology and water resources major is about solving a diverse range of environmental and water problems. It gives you a broad background in natural sciences including earth sciences, environmental sciences and marine sciences.

Environmental management
Environmental management is the management of our impact on the environment. The environmental management major aims to prepare you with an understanding of the complexity and contexts of environmental decision-making.

Geography
The geography major provides a broad foundation in geography. It involves investigating the dynamic relationships between humans and their cultures and environments.

Mathematics
The mathematics major provides a firm foundation in the basic principles and techniques of modern mathematics, and an understanding of how mathematics is applied in the social and natural sciences.

Microbiology
Microbiology is the study of microscopic organisms: from viruses and bacteria to parasites and fungi. The microbiology major involves the study of evolution, biodiversity, chemistry, biostatistics and immunology.

Ocean and climate sciences
The ocean and climate sciences major provides you with a deeper understanding of the physical processes shaping the marine environment and influencing climate.

Plant biology
The plant biology major involves study in areas such as Australian environmental change, diversity of plants and algae, animal and plant physiology, conservation biology and restoration ecology, and food biotechnology.

Physics
The physics major provides an understanding of the fundamental laws of nature. You will develop an understanding of the broad spectrum of known phenomena from classic and modern science, and explore the frontiers of modern science.

Statistics
The statistics major involves the use of mathematics, data science, biostatistics, probability and stochastic processes to analyse and solve complex statistical problems.

“Studying at Flinders has been a huge decision, but a great one. I have met some awesome people and been able to learn from some of the best archaeologists in the world. Flinders has amazing resources which are easily available and staff that are committed to enriching student learning and the student experience.”

Languages

Bachelor of Languages

Understanding of a culture and knowledge of its language are in high demand. With the internationalisation of the job market, graduates with a qualification in a foreign language will have greater employment opportunities both in Australia and overseas.

Extended majors within the Bachelor of Languages

The following languages can be taken as an extended major (45 units), major (36 units) or minor (22.5 units).

- French
  - French is an official language in 29 countries across multiple continents (Europe, Africa and America), and is one of the most widely taught second languages in the world.

- Indonesian
  - Studying Indonesian is a vital key to understanding our region. In addition to your new language skills, you’ll learn how Indonesians work and the ways people think, feel and live together.

- Italian
  - Italy is one of the wealthiest nations and a major trading partner with Australia, and its language is the fourth most studied in the world. Italian is a major community language in Australia and a pathway to employment.

- Modern Greek
  - The study of Modern Greek language and culture provides the key to understanding the importance of the Hellenic tradition in western intellectual development.

- Spanish
  - Spanish is second only to English as an international language, with more than 500 million speakers across 23 Spanish-speaking countries. It is one of the six official languages of the UN, making it an essential tool for diplomacy and the business world.

Also available

The following languages are also available as a minor through cross-institutional study at the University of Adelaide: Chinese, German and Japanese.

There’s more than one way to study a language at Flinders

In addition to the Bachelor of Languages, you can also study a language as a major in a number of Flinders degrees or take steps towards understanding a language and its culture with a Diploma in Language.

Studying language as a major

Language major sequences are available in the following degrees:

- Bachelor of Education (Primary)
- Bachelor of Education (Secondary)
- Bachelor of Arts
- Diploma in Language

Languages can be taken as an extended major (45 units), major (36 units) or minor (22.5 units).

Explore the possibilities of the world around you

Studying languages at Flinders gives you the chance to develop a broad range of career-ready skills and knowledge. No matter which language you are interested in, you’ll gain transferrable skills and industry experience that will help you throughout your career and let you explore your passions and the world we live in.

A rewarding career

Embrace your passion for exploring diverse cultures and ideas through Flinders’ language degrees. Work towards a future career filled with endless opportunities for growth and adventure. Travel the world, delving deep into the heart of different cultures through their languages.

Study for success

Flinders’ languages courses are designed to prepare you for a career in the real world. With close industry links, practical Work Integrated Learning (WIL) placement opportunities and a curriculum designed with your future in mind, you’ll graduate with highly employable expertise in communication, critical thinking, research, planning and negotiation.

If you haven't achieved the results you expected

If you haven't achieved the results you expected in Year 12, there are a number of pathways to your preferred degree. You can start studying one course and move to another via internal transfer or FlindersLink.

Flinders.edu.au/study/pathways/flinderslink

Year 12 entry

Most Year 12 applicants enter university via the traditional entry method, where offers are made to eligible applicants with the highest selection rank until all places in the degree are filled. Your selection rank is used by Flinders to assess your admission to a course and is based on your ATAR plus any adjustment factors for which you are eligible.

Flinders.edu.au/year12

Guaranteed entry

If you achieve an ATAR equal to or above the published guaranteed entry selection rank (and you meet course prerequisites) you will be guaranteed a place at Flinders. We offer guaranteed entry for most courses.

Indigenous Admission Scheme

The Indigenous Admission Scheme provides an alternative pathway for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people, who may not have been able to gain entry to university by traditional means, with the opportunity to study at Flinders.

See page 32 for further details.

Elite Athlete Pathway

If you've officially represented your school or state at a national level competition, we'll consider your school's recommendation about your academic potential when you apply.

Indigenous Admission Scheme

The Indigenous Admission Scheme provides an alternative pathway for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people, who may not have been able to gain entry to university by traditional means, with the opportunity to study at Flinders.

Are you eligible?
To be eligible for the Indigenous Admission Scheme you must be an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person in accordance with the Commonwealth definition, which requires you to:
- be of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander descent, and
- identify as an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander, and
- be accepted as an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander in the community in which you live or have lived.
You may be currently studying Year 12 or be a non-school leaver.

How to apply
1. Apply for the course you want to study through the South Australian Tertiary Admissions Centre (SATAC). You will get an application number from SATAC that you will need for your Indigenous Admission Scheme application form.
2. Complete the Indigenous Admission Scheme application form online (flinders.edu.au/indigenousadmissions). If you are having trouble completing an online application, you can request a paper-based application via ias@flinders.edu.au or call us on 08 8201 3033.
3. An interview is part of the application process, but you will be notified about this.

Application and interview dates
First round applications close late November and second round applications close early January for semester 1. For our midyear intake to a number of courses, applications close in June.

“I originally chose Flinders as they have one of the best facilities for future teachers and fantastic student engagement. Studying at Flinders has been a wonderful experience that has given me the opportunity to discover what I truly want into the future while also providing me with support in every way imaginable. Flinders and Yungkurrinthi have given me the opportunity to meet others with similar ambitions and goals as myself and find the benefit of an education in places I would never have thought to look. As a proud Indigenous woman, I want to use my degree to work in First Nation communities to help our young people make it through their high schooling experience and onto their own future aspirations.”

“I always knew I wanted to study overseas at some stage during my degree. A semester exchange gave me the chance to complete topics that weren’t available in my home university and experience life in a city that is very different to my own. Having completed a semester overseas, I now have an edge over the countless other students that are completing the same degree as me and have formed memories that will always stay with me.”

When can I start?

Glossary

There are many terms used within a university that may be unfamiliar or confusing. Below are a few terms that may need explanation.

Admission pathway

Any one of the options available to a prospective higher education student that will enable them to meet the entry requirements of their chosen courses.

ATAR

The Australian Tertiary Admission Rank (ATAR) is a ranking from 30 (lowest) to 99.95 (highest) agreed by COAG as a nationally equivalent measure of a person’s relative academic ranking within their complete age cohort in the year they graduated from senior secondary school.

Adjustment factors

Often referred to as ‘bonus points’, these are additional points that may be used in combination with an applicant’s university aggregate to derive their course selection rank.

Defer

Delaying the start of a course of study by one year (commencing students only). If you have already enrolled, then you need to withdraw from topics before you can defer.

Not all courses are deferrable. Please visit flinders.edu.au/defer for details.

Guaranteed entry selection rank

Achieve a selection rank equal to or above the published guaranteed entry selection rank and you’ll be guaranteed a place at Flinders.

Major

A sequence of topics required to be taken as defined in your course rule, normally across all years of a course.

Minor

A sequence of topics required to be taken as defined in your course rule, generally as part of a major.

Offer round/s

Refers to the series of dates on which offers of higher education places are issued to applicants throughout the year, whether through a tertiary admission centre or directly by a higher education provider.

Selection rank

The ranking that tertiary admission centres and most universities actually use to assess admission to a course. A person’s course selection rank can include their ATAR, any adjustments they are eligible for, such as equity or subject adjustments, other contributions calculated on the basis of work experience or previous non-secondary study, portfolio assessments, results of the Special Tertiary Admissions Test, other supplementary tests, etc.

Listing your SATAC preferences

You may enter up to six course preferences that you would like to study. You should list these in the order in which you’d like to study them, with the one you would like most listed first. If you cannot be offered a place in your first preference, you will then be considered for your second preference and so on. It is also important to consider a backup plan. Ensure you include our recommended pathway courses in your preferences.
