At Flinders it’s all about your creative career.

Flinders’ creative arts, humanities and social sciences degrees are taught by lecturers who are leaders in their fields. You’ll study with practising artists, renowned fieldwork experts, respected industry figures and researchers.

“My placement was a big stepping stone. I did my placement at Adelaide Zoo, and I loved it. I also volunteered for six weeks at the Visitor Information Centre in the city. It was great to get out and talk to tourists.”

Liana de Vita
Bachelor of Tourism and Events
Bachelor of Tourism and Events Management

Discover how to create events and experiences that inspire and amaze, or how to help people explore the world in entirely new ways. This is more than a business course – you'll study a range of topics ranging from marketing to graphic design to management, accounting, sustainability and more.

• Focus on the contemporary challenges of sustainable tourism development and climate change.
• Connect with industry partners through flexible placements and projects, with opportunities to take international field trips.
• Learn how creativity and business come together, and how your ideas and skills can help you build a fulfilling career in private enterprise, government or as an entrepreneur.

Bachelor of Arts and Science

Your career could cover science and the arts. With majors available from creative arts, humanities, law, science, mathematics, computing, and social and behavioural sciences, you'll graduate ready to take on the world.

• This degree allows you to study both arts and science without having to complete a double degree.
• Develop skills in hard science with a deeper appreciation of the role of science in society.
• Develop hands-on skills through project-based learning including live industry projects and undertake a professional placement in your final year.

Bachelor of Arts

Build your knowledge base in the areas you're passionate about, develop the complex critical thinking and problem-solving skills required to solve some of the world's greatest challenges, and learn transferrable skills that are highly valued in the workplace with a Bachelor of Arts. You'll develop world-changing, future-proof skills in a world that's changing fast. Become digitally literate, think outside the box and develop the skills to adapt and take advantage of new opportunities.

• Develop the complex critical thinking and problem-solving skills required to solve some of the world's greatest challenges.
• Select one or two majors from 24 disciplines and a minor from 29 disciplines, and choose from majors unique to SA universities including drama, law and society, archaeology, and innovation and enterprise.
• Learn how to investigate and analyse ideas, communicate your findings and build your knowledge base in a variety of industries, and study people: their behaviours, their habits, their desires and needs, and the ways that human societies express themselves now - and in the past-through language, art, and culture.

Diploma in Arts

Not quite ready for a bachelor's degree? Enrol in a one-year diploma where you get to taste a variety of different topics in the humanities, arts and social sciences and learn the fundamentals of university study such as communication and critical thinking skills.

• Gain a sound basis of knowledge in an area of your choice via a flexible degree.
• This course can be counted as the first year of the University's Bachelor of Arts degree, so you can transfer straight into the second year of study if you choose to do so.
• Graduates are suited to employment in many fields given the broad scope of specialisations available.

Languages and Culture degrees

The workplaces of tomorrow are likely to be very different from those we see today. But one thing is unlikely to change: employers will be searching for independently minded people with valuable, transferrable skills. A humanities and social sciences degree from Flinders will give you the knowledge and skills you'll require in tomorrow's workplace.

Understanding of a culture and knowledge of its language are in high demand. With the internationalisation of the job market, graduates with a qualification in a foreign language will have greater employment opportunities both in Australia and overseas.

• Choose from a broad range of languages in beginner to advanced levels. Study one or two languages from French, Indonesian, Italian, Modern Greek or Spanish. German, Chinese and Japanese are available via cross-institutional enrolment at the University of Adelaide.

• Potential areas of employment include tourism agencies, foreign language teaching, international trade, finance and commerce, diplomatic and defence agencies, translating services and international development.

• Flinders' series of international exchange links give you the chance to study part of your degree overseas.

Diploma in Language

The Diploma in Language offers a solid foundation for learning and using a language of your choice, and will help you develop cross-cultural knowledge and skills that are invaluable in international workplaces.

• Develop strong language skills combined with a cultural understanding.

• Study the Diploma on its own or study it alongside another degree and increase your communication, teamwork, interpersonal, presentation, problem-solving and organisational skills.

• Choose from French, Indonesian, Italian, Modern Greek or Spanish.
