Psychology

Build a career solving human problems

Worldwide, there is a growing awareness of our need to understand human psychology and mental health. The pressures of twenty-first century living are driving a need for graduates who can assess, advise and help solve some of the human problems that affect how we live and function. From working with autism and sleep disorders to conducting research on social justice or industrial relations, the field of psychology is wide, and skilled graduates are in high demand.

A rewarding career

Apply your skills across a range of careers and professions, including community services, human resources management, marketing, policy development and teaching, and – combined with further professional training – you can become a practising psychologist.

Study for success

Flinders is highly rated in undergraduate psychology for full-time employment, overall educational experience and teaching quality.* With a Flinders psychology degree, you’ll gain essential knowledge and skills required for further study to practise as a registered psychologist. By studying at Flinders, you are eligible to apply for admission to the Flinders University Honours program in psychology, as well as other nationally accredited psychology Honours programs, which can lead to further postgraduate study opportunities (eg. PhD) and/or training to become a practising psychologist.

Pursue your passion in a specialised field

For many students, their Flinders University journey leads to the pursuit of a lifelong passion.

Christiana Harous completed her undergraduate psychology studies at Flinders in 2017, but her Bachelor of Psychology (Honours) was just the beginning...

"Flinders was the right choice for my undergraduate degree because it equipped me with an excellent array of research skills. After completing my undergraduate studies, I moved to Sweden and was able to land a job working in R&D at a global automotive company."

Christiana’s love for psychology and research soon prompted her to return to Flinders and study for her PhD. The breadth of the field and Flinders’ links to industry played an important part in her decision.

"Flinders is preparing me for the future of the workforce by providing a fantastic array of professional development options. For example, as an HDR student you have access to a huge range of professional development courses on a rolling basis, so you can pick and choose topics that align with your future goals."

Christiana’s PhD, which aims to understand how offenders can work to restore their moral identities and social relationships, will help her pursue her goals and her passion for psychology.

"There are so many things that inspire and excite me about the psychology industry! After my PhD, I aspire to work as a clinical psychologist in the corrections field. Perhaps I’m an idealist, but I’d like to help change the criminal justice system."

Christiana Harous
Bachelor of Psychology (Honours) – graduated 2017
Doctor of Philosophy (Clinical Psychology) – present

Bachelor of Arts (Psychology Major)
Bachelor of Arts (Psychological Science Pathway)*

Develop a range of transferable skills that are highly valued in a wide range of jobs and industries. You'll learn how to investigate and analyse ideas, communicate your findings and build your knowledge base in a variety of areas. Studying a BA will also give you the chance to gain first-hand experience of how to apply what you learn through practical topics, placements and internship opportunities.

Bachelor of Behavioural Science (Psychology)

Combine a psychology major with a second major in a range of disciplines concerned with human behaviour and development. Besides having access to a broad range of major sequences, you'll participate in a mentoring program, have access to expert lecturers, and can apply for a one-year Honours at the end of the three years provided you achieve a sufficiently high standard. You'll graduate for work in a variety of settings or continue on with further study.

Bachelor of Psychological Science

Undertake an extensive range of key subjects and a pathway that could lead you to a career practising psychology. This degree covers fields such as personality; emotion; development; social, cultural and biological influences; and mental health. Besides having access to a broad range of electives, you'll participate in a mentoring program, have access to expert lecturers, and can apply for a one-year Honours at the end of the three years provided you achieve a sufficiently high standard.

Bachelor of Psychological Studies (Graduate Entry)

A nationally accredited psychology major is available to students who have already completed a degree in any discipline, with the Bachelor of Psychological Studies (Graduate Entry). This degree will enhance your understanding of human behaviour to pursue further studies in psychology. You could begin your career in areas such as youth work, advertising and marketing, policy and research, consumer research, industrial relations, human resources, program coordination and welfare.

Bachelor of Psychology (Honours)

Combining your degree with a qualification in another discipline will help you develop specialised abilities to stand out from the pack. Studying a combined degree at Flinders is the key to enhancing your career opportunities.

Find out about combining these qualifications:
- Bachelor of Behavioural Science (Psychology)/Bachelor of Science (Animal Behaviour)
- Bachelor of Behavioural Science (Psychology)/Bachelor of Laws and Legal Practice
- Bachelor of Behavioural Science (Psychology)/Bachelor of Business (Human Resource Management)
- Bachelor of Behavioural Science (Psychology)/ Bachelor of Laws and Legal Practice (Honours)
- Bachelor of Behavioural Science (Psychology)/ Bachelor of Business (Marketing)

Explore your interests and unlock more career opportunities by combining degrees. Combining your degree with a qualification in another discipline will help you develop specialised abilities to stand out from the pack. Studying a combined degree at Flinders is the key to enhancing your career opportunities.

Bachelor of Psychological Science/Bachelor of Behavioural Science (Psychology)
Through the study of both human and animal behaviour, you will learn how we learn, think and interact with others, what motivates our actions and the role that personality plays in behaviour. This combination offers a unique journey of discovery about the similarities between human and animal social organisation, and individual strategy and decision-making. You will analyse predator-prey behaviour and understand the role human and animal behaviour plays in our welfare, survival and evolution. This combined degree meets the accreditation requirements of the Australian Psychology Accreditation Council.

Bachelor of Laws and Legal Practice/Bachelor of Behavioural Science (Psychology)
Combining the Bachelor of Behavioural Science (Psychology) with law prepares you for occupations where law and psychology interact. You will develop an understanding of human behaviour, motivation, relationships, communication and cognitive processes. Better understand the actions of clients, judges, jurors and the changes to law, which will help you develop a stronger and more effective argument for your legal cases, and explore a social justice perspective for understanding human behaviour. This combined program provides an accredited professional qualification in both law and psychology.

Bachelor of Psychological Science/Bachelor of Business (Human Resource Management)
To manage an organisation effectively, you need to understand its people. The Bachelor of Psychological Science/Bachelor of Business (Human Resource Management) helps you to develop an understanding of psychology and apply it to human resource management. This combined degree meets the accreditation requirements of both the Australian Human Resources Institute and the Australian Psychology Accreditation Council.

Bachelor of Psychological Science/Bachelor of Business (Marketing)
The combined Bachelor of Psychological Science/Bachelor of Business (Marketing) provides the opportunity to link the psychology of marketing with consumer buying behaviour. It teaches you to market to people effectively by understanding how psychology influences their decisions, and is one of only a few programs that allow you to delve into consumer buying behaviour, rational and irrational decision-making processes, impulse buying behaviour, heuristic decision-making and other frameworks. This combined degree meets the accreditation requirements of the Australian Psychology Accreditation Council.

Indigenous Admission Scheme

The Indigenous Admission Scheme provides an alternative pathway for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people, who may not have been able to gain entry to university by traditional means, with the opportunity to study at Flinders.

Are you eligible?
To be eligible for the Indigenous Admission Scheme you must be an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person in accordance with the Commonwealth definition, which requires you to:

- be of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander descent, and
- identify as an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander, and
- be accepted as an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander in the community in which you live or have lived. You may be currently studying Year 12 or be a non-school leaver.

How to apply
1. Apply for the course you want to study through the South Australian Tertiary Admissions Centre (SATAC). You will get an application number from SATAC that you will need for your Indigenous Admission Scheme application form.
2. Complete the Indigenous Admission Scheme application form online (flinders.edu.au/indigenousadmissions). If you are having trouble completing an online application, you can request a paper based application via ias@flinders.edu.au or call us on 08 8201 3033.
3. An interview is part of the application process, but you will be notified about this.

Application and interview dates
First round applications close early January, second round applications close mid-June for mid-year intake. For mid-year intake to a number of courses, applications close in June.

“I originally chose Flinders as they have one of the best facilities for future teachers and fantastic student engagement. Studying at Flinders has been a wonderful experience that has given me the opportunity to discover what I truly want into the future while also providing me with support in every way imaginable. Flinders and Yungkurrinthi have given me the opportunity to meet others with similar ambitions and goals as myself and find the benefit of an education in places I would never have thought to look. As a proud Indigenous woman, I want to use my degree to work in First Nation communities to help our young people make it through their high schooling experience and onto their own future aspirations.”

“I always knew I wanted to study overseas at some stage during my degree. A semester exchange gave me the chance to complete topics that weren’t available in my home university and experience life in a city that is very different to my own. Having completed a semester overseas, I now have an edge over the countless other students that are completing the same degree as me and have formed memories that will always stay with me.”

Annelise Smith
Bachelor of Business (Advanced Leadership)

“The Wyndham Richardson Scholarship Fund has been invaluable to reduce the financial pressure during studies, especially now that I am in the later years of my degree.”

Ryan Rowston
Bachelor of Computer Science

Fees and charges
Your course fees – Commonwealth support
All our courses list indicative fees, but as an undergraduate student your course is Commonwealth supported provided you're an eligible Australian citizen, New Zealand citizen or permanent resident. Your course being Commonwealth supported means that your course fees are shared between the Australian government and you – with your portion being the student contribution amount.

HECS-HELP loan
You won't have to pay your fees up-front if you're an Australian citizen or holder of a permanent humanitarian visa. You can get a HECS-HELP loan for your student contribution portion of your uni fees. Find out more about costs to plan for while you're at uni at

There are many terms used within a university that may be unfamiliar or confusing. Below are a few terms that may need explanation.

Admission pathway
Any one of the options available to a prospective higher education student that will enable them to meet the entry requirements of their chosen courses.

ATAR
The Australian Tertiary Admission Rank (ATAR) is a ranking from 30 (lowest) to 99.95 (highest) agreed by COAG as a nationally equivalent measure of a person's relative academic ranking within their complete age cohort in the year they graduated from senior secondary school.

Adjustment factors
Often referred to as ‘bonus points’, these are additional points that may be used in combination with an applicant’s university aggregate to derive a person’s course selection rank.

Defer
Delaying the start of a course of study by one year (commencing students only). If you have already enrolled, then you need to withdraw from topics before you can defer.

Not all courses are deferrable, please visit flinders.edu.au/defer for details.

Guaranteed entry selection rank
Achieve a selection rank equal to or above the published guaranteed entry selection rank and you’ll be guaranteed a place at Flinders.

Major
A sequence of topics required to be taken as defined in your course rule, normally across all years of a course.

Minor
A sequence of topics required to be taken as defined in your course rule, generally as part of a major.

Offer round/s
Refers to the series of dates on which offers of higher education places are issued to applicants throughout the year, whether through a tertiary admission centre or directly by a higher education provider.

Selection rank
The ranking that tertiary admission centres and most universities actually use to assess admission to a course. A person's course selection rank can include their ATAR, any adjustments they are eligible for, such as equity or subject adjustments, other contributions calculated on the basis of work experience or previous non-secondary study, portfolio assessments, results of the Special Tertiary Admissions Test, other supplementary tests, etc.

Listing your SATAC preferences
You may enter up to six course preferences that you would like to study. You should list these in order in which you’d like to study them, with the one you would like most listed first. If you cannot be offered a place in your first preference, you will then be considered for your second preference and so on. It is also important to consider a backup plan. Ensure you include our recommended pathway courses in your preferences.
