Master of Teaching

Career-ready educators

Graduate job-ready in 2 years, with Flinders University's Master of Teaching. If you hold an approved undergraduate degree, for example, a science or arts degree, a Master of Teaching could see you use your existing skills in new ways and explore a range of new career opportunities.

In two years full-time, you'll graduate with the skills, knowledge and practical placement experience that teaching requires. The Master of Teaching will enable you to apply for registration with the Teachers Registration Board of South Australia.

Whether you're interested in teaching young children, students in primary school or students in high school working towards their own careers, the Master of Teaching has an option that will suit your aspirations.
