

Study

Bachelor of Accounting and Finance

Prepare for a career in accounting or finance with an introduction to the technical and practical realities of the global marketplace.

State-of-the-art facilities

A purpose-built trading room located at our Bedford Park campus that features Refinitiv Eikon terminals, giving you access to over 400 global markets. This hands-on learning space lets you apply what you've learned in class and experience what it's like to trade in fast-moving international markets.

Practical experience

Participate in Work-Integrated Learning and industry placement programs, and immerse yourself in live industry projects with the New Venture Institute.

Professional accreditation & recognition

This degree is accredited by Certified Practising Accountants Australia (CPA Australia) and Chartered Accountants Australia and New Zealand (CAANZ). It satisfies the admission requirements of professional bodies such as CPA Australia, CAANZ, and the Institute of Public Accountants (IPA).

Why study at Flinders?

5 stars in Business & Management for learning resources and student support

The Good Universities Guide 2025 (undergraduate)

Ranked No.1 in SA in Business & Management for overall educational experiences

The Good Universities Guide 2024 (postgraduate), public SA-founded universities only

Bachelor of Accounting & Finance

Fast Facts

Duration	3 years
Location	Bedford Park/City
Intake	March/July
2026 fees	$39,000 AUD
IELTS	6.0 speaking 6.0 writing

What you will learn

This degree provides core studies in a range of business-related topics. You will learn fundamental business concepts and apply them to real-world scenarios, developing analytical skills vital for roles in accounting and business analysis.

Potential occupations:

- graduate taxation advisor
- finance systems graduate
- accountant
- graduate business analyst

Scan code to learn more

“Flinders University stood out to me because of its strong reputation for supporting international students and offering a good quality education. The teachers are helpful, friendly, and there are many services offered to students who are seeking support. Also, the diverse culture on campus really makes Flinders extra special.”

Alani Mae Ananoria, Bachelor of Accounting & Finance

