Awards

Norm Feather was presented with the Turner Medal for distinguished contributions to social psychology over a lifetime career. The medal was presented at the 44th Annual Meeting of the Society of Australasian Social Psychologists (SASP) held at Newcastle, 8th-11th April.

Tomoko Nishzawa was awarded a student Prize for the Clinical College of the APS (CCLP) for 2014. Tomoko’s name will be published on the APS College of Clinical Psychologists website and will have her name, supervisor name and thesis title published in an edition of the journal of the APS College of Clinical Psychologists, Clinical Psychologist.

Conference Presentations

Conference Presentations (Cont.)

Postgraduate Student Publications

Community Service

Eva Kemps organised and chaired the inaugural meeting of the national Forum on Selective Attention and Individual Differences in Motivation and Emotion, University of Sydney, 8 April 2015. The event was attended by about 30 academics and students from around the country.

Eva Kemps was also a judge for the Best Student Paper Award at the Experimental Psychology Conference, Sydney, 8-11 April 2015.

Mary Luszcz was interviewed by Ewart Shaw from Radio Adelaide regarding her upcoming presentation to the Grey Matters Conference on Medication use amongst older Australians. The segment was aired on Sunday 22nd March in the “Orbit” program.

Visitors

Iris Verpaalen, from Radboud University in Nijmegen, The Netherlands is visiting the School for 5 weeks in April-May to work with Eva Kemps and her students on research projects relating to cognitive biases and eating behaviour.

Please send information for the May newsletter by the end of May to karen.yardley@flinders.edu.au.

Thank you.